

(The press will be admitted to the Galleries immediately behind the invited guests, and a photographic pool can proceed down the centre aisle for a brief close-up of Her Majesty when seated upon the Throne. The pool will then proceed to the ante-room at the left of the Throne to await Her Majesty and The Duke's entry to this room in order to sign the Golden Book.)

10:45 a.m. The Queen and The Duke will be conducted to the reception room on the floor below where presentation of the invited guests will be made.

(Although coverage of the presentations will be permitted, the press buses for photographic media will leave during these presentations for the next event, the visit to the Bois de Coulonge, in order to permit the taking of special outdoor set-pieces of the Royal Couple at the residence of Lieut. Governor Comtois and Mme Comtois. Although no coverage of the arrival and of events within the residence will be possible, The Queen and The Duke have agreed to pose for close-ups with the Lieut. Governor and Mme Comtois at the edge of the front portico facing the river a few minutes after their arrival at Bois de Coulonge.)

11:15 a.m. Her Majesty and His Royal Highness leave the Legislative Buildings for the Bois de Coulonge and upon arrival (11:25 a.m.) greet the Lieut. Governor and Mme Comtois within the residence.

(Outdoor photographic shots follow.)

12:30 p.m.- Her Majesty and His Royal Highness are entertained at luncheon by the Lieut. Governor
2:45 p.m. and Mme Comtois.
