

These positions now adopted by the PLO open new perspectives for an accommodation on the basis of territorial compromise and coexistence.

Mr. Clark announced that the Canadian Ambassador to the United Nations, Yves Fortier, will be meeting with a representative of the PLO mission to the United Nations, for a review of Middle East issues to be dealt with in the United Nations.