

The Address—Mr. Low

Let me say in conclusion that as a political organization in this country we place ourselves squarely and firmly on the side of the little fellow, the private enterpriser, the farmer, the small businessman, the Canadian consumer, and the home owner in the struggle for a better way of life, a freer way of life, under a policy of live and help to live that should apply within Canada as well as in our relations with other countries.

On motion of Mr. Cauchon the debate was adjourned.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Harris: Mr. Speaker, we will be going on with this debate tomorrow and Friday.
