

Questions

3. The Company of Young Canadians did not pay anything in the fiscal year 1967-68 for advertising in the various communication media and it retained the services of no firms for this purpose. Three television commercials were made for a total cost of $4,000. These commercials were shown on the two major television networks, C.B.C. and C.T.V., and on private stations as public service ads, at no cost to the Company.

4. The deficit of the C.Y.C. as shown by the statement of income and expenses for the year ended March 31, 1968 was $94,345.00.

The company intends to recoup this deficit in its current year of operations, and for the three months ended June 30th, 1968, the economies effected have resulted in an excess of receipts over disbursements of approximately $40,000.

5. The total amount paid to volunteers of the C.Y.C. in the fiscal year 1967-68 was $526,904. The number of volunteers who were paid through the payroll was 293.

The following names of the ten volunteers who received the largest monthly allowances and the amounts are:

Name	Living $	Personal $	Special $	Total $
Gerry Fatels	215.18	35.00	35.00	285.18
Serge Loyer	265.00	35.00	35.00	335.00
Albert Burger	260.00	35.00	35.00	330.00
Edouard Casaubon	360.00	35.00	85.00	480.00
Yves Brunet	362.00	35.00	85.00	482.00
F. Bertrand Ede	180.00	35.00	135.00	350.00
Francine Carrières	220.00	35.00	35.00	290.00
L.-P. Aubert	360.00	35.00	35.00	430.00
Jean Roy	250.00	35.00	—	285.00
F. Marchand	250.00	35.00	—	285.00

6. The total of expenses for the executive director of the Company of Young Canadians for the fiscal year 1967-68 was $3,913.85. His annual salary as set by order in council was $20,000.

CHARGES AGAINST SEAMEN'S UNION

Question No. 105—Mr. Howard (Skeena):

1. Since January 1, 1963, were any charges laid against the Seafarer's International Union or any officer or member thereof or against any person to the effect that Section 268 of the Canada Shipping Act had been allegedly contravened?

2. By whom were such charges laid, upon what dates and what are the names of each person or organization so charged?

3. What has been the disposition of each such charge and the date thereof?

4. What costs were incurred by the Government of Canada with respect to (a) obtaining information leading up to the charges being laid (b) the actual laying of the charges (c) witness fees (d) expenses of witnesses (e) transportation (i) of witnesses (ii) R.C.M. Police Officers, and (iii) others than those mentioned in (i) and (ii) hereof (f) telephones (g) telegrams (h) legal fees (i) matters other than those referred to in (a) to (h) inclusive?

5. How many hours were used by R.C.M. Police officers in dealing with these charges and what is the estimate of wages paid to such officers for such activities?

6. Were any witnesses brought from Vancouver and, if so, did one or more of them put in an expense claim for silk or nylon stockings and, if so, was the claim accepted and paid?

[Mr. Pelletier.]

Hon. G. J. McIlraith (Solicitor General):

1. Yes. 15 members of the seafarer's International union were charged under section 408 of the Criminal Code of Canada that they conspired to persuade great lakes seamen to absent themselves from duty in violation of section 268 of the Canada Shipping Act.

2. Corporal J. L. G. Charron, R.C.M. Police, on January 30, 1964. There were two informations, the first charging William Glasgow, and the second charging Harold Chamberlain Banks, Leonard J. McLaughlin, Harvey McKinnon, Thomas Piercey, Fred Southern, John Royce, Rene Turcotte, Paul Gagné, Henning Jacobson, Gilbert Gauthier, John McQuaig, Gilbert Johnson, Raymond Doucet, and Donald Swaite.

3. (a) Southern, Turcotte, Jacobson, and Johnson were dismissed by Sessions Judge Emile Trottier on June 29, 1965; (b) McLaughlin, McKinnon, Piercey, Royce, Gagne, Gauthier, McQuaig, Doucet, and Swaite were dismissed by Sessions Judge Emile Trottier on June 22, 1965; (c) The charge against Glasgow was withdrawn on August 10, 1967; (d) The charge against Banks is still outstanding.