*[English]PRIVILEGEREFERENCE TO QUESTION RAISED BY MR. MACKEY ON MATTERS SUB JUDICE

Mr. Speaker: Order. Before calling upon the hon. member for Sault Ste. Marie (Mr. Symes) with respect to his proposed motion pursuant to Standing Order 26, may I take a few moments on the matter raised by the hon. member for Central Nova (Mr. MacKay) and others, in connection with the rather important question of matters sub judice—there is a considerable weight of material having to do with this question, and the arguments put forward by hon. members yesterday are most interesting—it is abundantly clear that in any event a decision by the Chair, and I hope all members are agreed that it would be worth while, but it would be difficult at this point for the Chair to attempt to review the matter not only as it relates to criminal proceedings but to civil proceedings as well and try to make a definitive pronouncement if possible.

It is clear to me at this point, however, that in any event no restriction ought to exist on the right of any member to put questions respecting any matter before the courts particularly those relating to a civil matter, unless and until that matter is at least at trial.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Speaker: Therefore, in any event, bearing in mind the customary practices of the courts, it will be some time before any restriction might be visited upon the hon. member for Central Nova. I make this observation at the present stage only because I believe it would permit the Chair to take a little more time to deal further with this matter.

Mr. Cyril Symes (Sault Ste. Marie): Mr. Speaker, I ask leave, seconded by the hon. member for Nickel Belt (Mr. Rodriguez), to move the adjournment of the House under Standing Order 26 for the purpose of discussing a specific and important matter requiring urgent consideration, namely the strike of some 20,000 paper workers which has continued for over half a year causing severe hardship to the families and economies of the regions involved, and
