

April 6, 1932.

President W. Sherwood Fox,
The University of Western Ontario,
London, Ontario.

My dear President Fox,

I am sorry to learn by your letter of the fourth that you have been laid up. I hope that you are feeling completely recovered. Do not overdo it: it is a worrying time, at least that is my experience.

I was sorry that at the last minute we found it impossible for Professor Campbell Howard to attend the banquet in honour of Doctor Waugh, and I greatly appreciate the sacrifice made by Doctor Hewitt in going to London to represent McGill.

With kindest wishes,

I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.