

their command-
number, 188;
188, 197;
ish, 193; on
ve the Shaw-enae at Cata-
y the Dutch,
es, 255; raids
nies, 255; in
; attack their
for the Engague against e, 298; leagu-
298; courted n, 342; have treaty with ements with warriors, 333;
banding
355; demand attacked by ng, 361; their ace with the 330.

S, 44.

45; his map,
332, 341, 342.

is in Canada,
favored by relations, 139,
on with Cham-
1; sent west,
7; their marroquois, 176,
ulpians, 179, 33, 253; as le, 257; rela-
; their Rela-
expelled from 41; disagree 60; and the like Cadillac,

0; among the ed, 169.
es, 203, 218;
t Green Bay,
8; first tracks
er map, 224, 226, 227; selected for western discovery, 234; ignorant of what La Salle had done, 234; joined by Marquette, 234; his maps, 236; his expedition, 237; reaches the Mississippi, 238; visits the Illinois,

240; turns back, 243; up the Illinois, 243; at the Chicago portage, 244;
at Sault Ste. Marie, 244; at Fort Frontenac, 244; loses his papers, 245;
his earliest map (1673-74), 245, 247;
his Carte Générale, 246; his accounts of his explorations, 245, 246; map drawn from recollection, 249; denied the right to a trading-post on the Mississippi, 250; sent to Hudson's Bay, 301; map of his route on the Mississippi, 347; his buildings on An-ticosti burned, 350.

Jomard, 56.

Jontel, with La Salle, 310; his Journal
Historique, 310, 317, 321; his map, 318, 319; left at Fort St. Louis, 319, 320; on La Salle's last expedition, 321; separates from La Salle's murderers, 322; reaches Starved Rock, 323; tells a false story, 323.

Juchereau, 360.

Judaea's map, 67.

Kankakee River, 244, 265, 272, 290.

Kaskaskia (on the Illinois), 243.

Kennebec River, 91, 147.

Kickapoos, 237, 269.

King map, 7.

Kingsford, Canada, 81, 211, 260, 317.

Kirke, David, in the St. Lawrence, 132; returns to England, 133; captures Quebec, 134.

Kirke, Gervase, 132.

Kohl, J. G., Discovery of Maine, 25, 26, 55.

Kretschmer's Atlas, 5, 15, 19, 22.

Kunstmann's maps, 3, 6.

La Barre, Governor, 300; impedes La Salle's movements, 303; invades the Seneca country, 326.

Labrador as an island, 3, 7, 11; in the early maps, 15; its coasts, 20.

La Chesnaye, 300.

Lachine attacked, 343; rapids, 85.

Laconia, 135, 160.

La Forest, 272, 288, 310.

Lafreri's atlas, 61.

La Hontan in Canada, 351; his maps, 352, 353, 354.

Lake of the Woods, 151.

Lakes. See names of lakes.

Lalemant, Charles, 129, 130, 155.

Lalemant, Gabriel, 172.

Lamberville, 327, 334.

La Mothe Cadillac. See Cadillac.

Lane, Ralph, 72.

La Pointe, 185; mission, 198, 199.

La Platte River, 240.

La Potherie, 204.

L'Archevêque, 321, 324.

La Roche. See Roberval.

La Salle, his early life, 210; and the Jesuits, 211, 225; settles near Montreal, 211; portrait, 212; plans an expedition, 213; joined by Galinée, 214;
starts, 214; among the Iroquois, 217;
meets Joliet, 218; his track uncertain, 222; his papers, 222; Histoire
de M. La Salle, 222; did he discover the Ohio and Mississippi? 223, 224;
his Lachine estate, 228; and the early maps, 230; meets Joliet, 244; at Catarqui, 244; thinks of a traffic in buffalo skins, 245; relations with Frontenac, 251; commands Fort Frontenac, 252; returns to France, 253;
obtains a grant, 253; agrees to rebuild Fort Frontenac, 254; ennobled, 254;
returns to Canada, 254; strengthens Fort Frontenac, 255; keeps vessels on Lake Erie, 255; again in France, 256; receives a patent for the Mississippi country, 256; gains the aid of Tonty, 257; his character, 257; at Fort Frontenac, 257; builds the "Griffon," 258; his creditors, 260;
at St. Ignace, 262; at Green Bay, 262; on Lake Michigan, 263; anxious about the "Griffon," 264, 266, 270, 271; and Allouez, 266; builds Fort Crèvecoeur, 266; builds a vessel, 266; returns to the settlements, 268, 270; at Fort Frontenac, 271; business embarrassments, 271; captures marauders, 271; again on the Illinois, 272; reaches the Mississippi,
272; returns to the Miami country, 272; papers perhaps used by Hennepin, 282; his official report, 286; in the Miami country, 288; misrepresented by the Jesuits, 288; his Mohegan hunter, 288; hears of Tonty, 289; finds him at Mackinac, 289; at Catarqui making his will, 289; hates Allouez, 290; takes possession of the Arkansas country, 292; at the mouth of the Mississippi, 293; falls ill, 297;
his official report, 297; hints at a voyage to the Mexican gulf, 297; his movements incensed the Iroquois, 298; his enemies in power, 300; his property seized, 300; returns to the Illinois, 302; fortifies Starved Rock, 302; embarrassed by La Barre, 303;
his post seized by De Baugis, 304;
hears of Frontenac's recall, 304, 306;
leaves the Rock, 305; in France, 307;