inspector of the port previous to the lading thereof, by lodging an entry therefor with such surveyor or inspector; and bonds to be given to the collector in the same manner as in cases of refined sugar; to produce certificates of landing at a foreign port; as in other cases: the drawback is payable in six months; provided, such certificates are produced, but no drawback under one hundred and fifty gallons.

Form of Entry.

Marks and Numbers.	Packages and Contents.	Quantity.	Proof.

The Oath to this Entry is the same as for refined sugar:

Bounty on Salted Provisions and Fish of the United States.

An allowance of thirty cents per barrel is allowed on pickled fish of the United States; and twenty-five cents per barrel on all provisions salted within the United States, without any deduction, if the same shall amount to ten dollars. And in order to obtain such bounty, the exporter to make an entry therefor with the collector; but no entry will be received where such pickled fish or salted provisions have not been inspected and marked agreeable to the laws of the respective states, where such laws are in force. Such bounty is payable in six months from the date of the bond to be given; and in no case, unless the certificates of landing at a foreign port; as in other cases, are produced. The bond to be in double the amount of such bounty—conditioned, that the same shall be landed and left at some foreign port:

Form of the Entry.

Entry of intended to be exported for the Benefit of Bounty, by

Marks as branded on the casks.	Number of barrels.	Description and species of fish or provisions.	Quality.

Oath to be taken by the Exporter.

I do solemnly, sincerely and truly swear, (or affirm) to the best of my knowledge and belief, that the designated in the annexed entry, dated and subscribed with my name, have not been imported from any foreign port or place, but are truly and bona fide (if provisions) salted provisions, cured within the limits of the United States, (or if fish) pickled fish of the fisheries of the United States; that they are now actually laden on board the whereof is master, and are to be exported to and are not intended to be landed within the limits of the United States. So help me God.
