The delicious quality of "SALADA" tea has been maintained for twenty-one years, notwithstanding the fact that there have been over a hundred imitating packets which have come and gone, and all of which have shown the dealer a larger profit. Not one of them has given the same satisfaction to the consumer. You owe it to yourself and to good service generally, to see that another packet tea is not foisted on you when you order "SALADA."

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY Be careful of letters and of what you write. Some annoyance threatens you from the source of the letter. Remember that the things which seem so desirable to you today might soon become an embarrassment. Those born today will be talented, but naturally untruthful. They should be made to understand the weakness of the insincere character, also they should never be indulged in selfishness and intolerance.

Baby's Food

The first few weeks after the baby is born, it may appear as tho the mother's milk were insufficient. It is a trying period, however, and conditions are not at their best, often the milk supply increases when the mother is living her normal, natural life again.

Of course, if there is a continuous loss in weight artificial feeding should be attempted sooner. In fact, continuous loss of weight at any period of the baby's life is sufficient reason either to stop the nursing or to add bottle feedings as well.

If it is finally decided that the baby must be weaned and this decision is reached if there is excessive vomiting, accompanied by loss of weight or stationary weight extending over a period of two weeks or more, bad diarrhoea accompanied by loss of weight extending over a period of two weeks or more; progressive loss of weight even while the digestion seems normal; the proper food must be selected and baby must be taught to take his nourishment from the bottle. The bottle should always be used for a baby under nine months of age. If the breast is given up altogether, he cannot get sufficient nourishment from a cup or spoon.

It is always a struggle to persuade a baby that bottle meals are all right. If one is persistent, however, and will not give in to the determined young person, giving nourishment in no other way, the baby soon learns what is expected of him.

The hole in the nipple should be large at first, so that the milk runs freely, afterwards use another nipple with smaller opening.

The best way to prevent this bottle-struggle is to accustom the baby to drinking boiled water from a bottle several times a day from birth.

The question naturally arises: If the baby is to be weaned entirely, what food shall be substituted?

Cow's milk properly modified comes nearest to mother's milk. The milk must be fresh and clean, and to make it suitable for baby water or gruel and sugar are added.

SHE HIT SOMEBODY ANYWAY.

LONDON, April 11.—(Can. Press).—As the editor of The Evening Standard, an anti-suffrage newspaper, was leaving his office tonight a woman of about 40 years of age, who was lying in wait, threw a stone at him. The missile missed its mark, but crashed thru the window of an adjoining office and injured the night watchman. The woman who threw the stone escaped.

The Honorary Governors who will visit the Toronto General Hospital during the week commencing on April 12th are Messrs. Michael McLaughlin and James Scott.

POP-OVERS.

BREAKFAST is the influential meal of the day; it is at the breakfast table that the family meet together for a few moments before the parting of the ways. Within an hour they will separate to their duties not to meet again, perhaps until night fall.

Who can estimate how far the good cheer inspired by a wholesome breakfast may follow an indifferently prepared morning meal?

The American breakfast menu is ideal. It consists of fruit, eggs, bacon, toast, or hot breads, and coffee. With the coffee clear and fragrant, the eggs like Caesar's wife, and the fruit in season, it only remains to decide whether toast, wheat cakes or biscuits are the best accompaniments.

A very good decision is to have a variety, and a pleasant surprise to interchange with the usual breakfast breads are "pop-overs."

The woman who knows the secret of making them will say there is nothing else so quickly prepared for the table; others who have made them and had them refuse to "pop" will disagree with the statement. The trouble is with the average recipe book and not with the jolly bun.

A correct recipe for pop-overs should read: Two cups of flour, three eggs, two cups of milk and one teaspoon of salt. It is not enough to know only the ingredients; you must know how to put them together and how to bake them after they are mixed.

Beat the yolks and whites of the eggs separately until both are very light, because the mixture depends upon the air incorporated in it thru the eggs, no baking powder being used to lighten it.

Sift the salt and flour into a bowl. Pour the eggs and the milk together; add the liquid to the dry ingredients gradually, stirring briskly all the while. If you add milk too rapidly, the mixture will not be smooth and you will have to pour it thru a sieve.

The gem pans should be well greased and heating in the oven. Remove them and fill each cup a little more than half full. Return at once to the oven, which should be only moderately hot. Most cookery books direct that the oven shall be "piping" hot and that the pop-overs shall bake in ten minutes. Allow twenty minutes for the baking and reckon the time as for a sponge cake, or a soufflé or any article that is lightened with eggs. The next five minutes will "set" the air cells and the last portion of the time allotted will brown them.

If the oven is intensely hot, a crust will form over the top of the pop-overs and they will not pop. Iron gem pans are the best to use. The little cakes should swell to four times their height and be wonderfully light.

Making a Lawn—No. II.—Grading and Seeding.

Grading means shaping the surface of the land to the desired level. This means filling in low spots with earth from high spots; and doing this lays bare a subsoil in which nothing can grow save perhaps the most aggressive of weeds. For this very reason, it is always necessary, before grading, to remove the top soil from both the places to be filled in, and any hillocks to be levelled. This top soil will be useful to respread when the grading is done.

What a familiar sight it is to see the hard, yellow clay or other unfertile earth, taken from cellar excavations, being spread with disastrous results over perfectly good top soil. In such cases the top soil should have been removed, with such little trouble, too, and then respread after the cellar soil had been used. Nothing on earth in the shape of fertilizer will render that yellow clay fit soil for any kind of plant growth.

After grading has been satisfactorily carried out, and drainage looked after—when necessary—and the top soil levelled, by spading and raking, or plowing and harrowing (if a large lawn is in process of making) as described above, the seeding will be in order.

The quantity of seed necessary for 300 square feet, that would be a lawn 20 x 15 feet, is one quart, or at the rate of five bushels for one acre. This may seem a large quantity, but remember we want a lawn of fine-leaved grass. We want it to grow quickly, and we want the grass to crowd out any weeds, the seeds of which are in all soils.

Lawn seed may be sown any time from April to October; but preferably in early spring or early fall, to get the benefit of the spring and fall rains. Choose for it to grow in a quiet day, so that the seed will fall as evenly as possible. Make two sowings, the second at right angles to the first, which will insure a more even distribution. After sowing, harrow or rake the ground, and then roll, which will press the seed well into the earth.

Watch for weeds, and dig, or "spud" them up as soon as seen. If caught lifted out completely, young, the long roots will be easily

SUFFRAGETTES AFRAID THEY'LL BE DEPORTED

LONDON, April 11.—(Can. Press)

It is understood that a member of the house of commons who is friendly to the cause of woman suffrage intends to ask Reginald McKenna, home secretary, next week whether he is contemplating a plan whereby Miss Zelle Emerson of Jackson, Mich., and other foreign militant suffragettes guilty of breaking English laws will be deported as undesirable aliens. Under the English law Mr. McKenna would be acting within his legal rights in doing this. Therefore the report that he intends to do so has caused consternation among the American women here who have jail records as well as among those whose affiliation with the women's social and political union, the militant suffrage organization, might lead to their being sentenced to a term of prison.

EXCEPTIONAL ART FURNITURE SALE.

What is beyond doubt the most valuable and important collection of objects of art furniture and decoration, oil prints, china and silver ever submitted to public sale in Canada will be on view in the Art Rooms of Chas. M. Henderson & Company, 87-89 East King street, on Monday next, April 14. It includes contributions from the estates of Murray Burgess, Sarah Tudhope Nesbitt and W. L. Franks, and among the Burgess items will be found some of the finest black walnut and mahogany furniture, silver and plate procurable. The Nesbitt estate is especially noteworthy for the well-known collection of oil prints and Jacobean furniture, ivories and articles of vertu, silver and old plate, believed with reason to rank with the finest ever offered at public sale in Toronto.

The sale will extend over Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 15, 16 and 17, and will commence at 11 o'clock a.m. each day. Among the numbers catalogued for the opening day are fine old oil prints, antique Persian rugs, colonial, Italian and Chippendale furniture, engravings and rare china. In Wednesday's sale will be found rare colored prints, magnificent Imari, Vienna, and Sevres vases and rarely carved Louis XV. and XVI. furniture and other Jacobean oak cabinets and tables, and Thursday will be in some respect the most important of this exceptional three days' sale, embracing as it does Sheraton and Chippendale mahogany furniture, vases of the most valuable and artistic makes and brass and metal work of unusual artistic quality. This sale will attract unusual attention from connoisseurs, and the collection will repay careful inspection.
