

CONTENTS.

vii

River. — Appearance of two Indians. — Maufelly permitted to visit his Wife. — Consummate Skill of De Char-lôit. — Dwarf Pines. — Story of the Rat and the Beaver. — Unfitness of the Trees for Planks. — Artillery Lake. — Force of the Rapids. — Accident in our Passage. — Leave the Ah-hel-dessy. — A Bear killed. — Ridiculous Story. — March resumed. — Desolate Scenery. — A Deer shot. — Tormented by Sand-flies. — Anecdote of Sir John Franklin. — Meeting with Mr. McLeod, by an unexpected Route	Page 156
---	----------

CHAP. VII.

"Le grand jeune Homme." — Trade with the Indians. — Sunday. — Mr. King arrives, with two Bateaux. — Performed a Surgical Operation. — Discomforts of an Indian Canoe. — Conduct of the Party. — Erection of new Dwelling. — Arrival of Indians. — Their Policy. — Aged Indian Woman. — Starving Visitors. — Case of Revenge for Inhospitallity. — The Thlew-ec-choh described. — Observatory. — Strange Appearance of the Aurora. — Pouring in of the Indians. — Superstitious Fancies. — Shortness of Food. — Domiciled in the new Building, named Fort Reliance. — Supplies again fail. — Akaitcho. — Discharge of De Char-lôit and Two Iroquois; also, of La Charité. — Gloom of the Indians. — Story of a young Hunter. — Breach of Indian Law. — Death of the old Woman. — Christmas-day. — Short Allowance. — Experiments. — Excessive Cold. — Arrival of Mr. McLeod. — Barbarous Atrocity. — Revolting Story of an Indian	183
--	-----

CHAP. VIII.

Exemplary Conduct of Akaitcho. — Mr. McLeod and his Family leave us. — Arrival of Maufelly. — Supply of Deer-flesh. — Misunderstanding between Akaitcho and the Interpreter. — Preparation for building Two Boats. — Mr. McLeod's ill Success. — Strange Conduct of Two Indians.
--	--