

together with the lawful fees and charges of the Pound-keeper, and also of the Fence-viewers (if any), and the expenses of the animal's keeping.

18. Every Pound-keeper, and every person who impounds or confines, or causes to be impounded or confined, any animal in any common Pound or in any open or close Pound, or in any inclosed place, shall daily furnish the animal with good and sufficient food, water and shelter, during the whole time that such animal continues impounded or confined.

19. Every such person who furnishes the animal with food, water and shelter, may recover the value thereof from the owner of the animal.

20. The value or allowance as aforesaid may be recovered, with costs, by summary proceeding before any Justice of the Peace within whose jurisdiction the animal was impounded, in like manner as fines, penalties or forfeitures for the breach of any By-law of the Municipality may by law be recovered and enforced by a single Justice of the Peace; and the Justice shall ascertain and determine the amount of such value and allowance when not otherwise provided for in this By-law, adhering, so far as applicable, to the tariff of Pound-keepers' fees and charges that are established thereby.

21. The Pound-keeper or person so entitled to proceed may, instead of such summary proceeding, enforce the remuneration to which he is entitled in manner hereinafter mentioned.

22. In case it be by affidavit proved before one of the Justices aforesaid, to his satisfaction, that all the proper notices had been duly affixed and published in the manner and for the respective times above prescribed, then if the owner, or some one for him, does not within the time specified in the notices, or before the sale of the animal, replevy or redeem the same in manner aforesaid, the Pound-keeper who impounded the animal, or if the person who took up the animal did not deliver such animal to any Pound-keeper, but retained the same in his own possession, then, any Pound-keeper of the Township may publicly sell the animal to the highest bidder, at the time and place mentioned in the aforesaid notices, and after deducting the penalty and the damages (if any) and fees and charges, shall apply the produce in discharge of the value of the food and nourishment, loss of time, trouble, and attendance so supplied as aforesaid, and of the expenses of driving or conveying and impounding or confining
