No interruptions

9. No Councillor shall interrupt another while speaking to the question except on a point of order, motion for adjournment of the Council or of the debate.

Precedence in speaking.

10. When two or more councillors rise to speak simultaneously, the Warden shall name the one who shall speak first and the others shall sit down.

Every Councillor shall vote.

11. Every Councillor present shall vote on all questions and motions unless the council excuse him, or unless he be personally interested in the result, and no councillor shall leave his place during the sitting of the Council, without turning to the chair as he retires, and making a bow in such a manner as that any member present, may have an opportunity to object to the absence of such reti: ⁀ ..ber.

Points of Order.

12. A councillo   order shall sit down unless he be permitted b‿   n or Chairman to explain, and the Council if a‿   ɔ, shall decide the question of order.

Subject of debate to be read.

13. Any councillor may require the question or motion under discussion, to be read for his information at any time during the debate, but not so as to interrupt a member speaking.

Not to speak more than twice.

14. No councillor shall speak more than twice to the same question except the mover, who shall have the right of reply when all other speakers shall have finished, provided that any councillor conceiving himself misunderstood may explain, but so, that no new matter be introduced by him.

All motions to be written in ink

15. Every motion shall be presented to the Chair written in ink, with the names of the mover and seconder also written thereon in ink, excepting only, motions for the adoption of reports for reference of petitions or other documents to standing committees ; for the Council to go into committee of the whole or for a committee to rise.

Warden to read.

16. Every motion read by the Warden or the Chairman shall be deemed to be in the possession of the Council, and can only be withdrawn before decision or amendment by permission of the Council.