

Directors should make regular quarterly collections, and pay in the amounts to the branch treasurer as soon as received, with permission, however, to accept in one sum the whole annual subscription of any person who should feel inclined so to pay.

The Branch Associations will of course make such Bye Laws as their particular circumstances may seem to require—always keeping in view the rules and regulations of the General Committee.