

- IMPERIAL PHRASEOLOGY, See Phraseological Inexactitudes.
- IMPERIAL POLICY, 328.
- IMPERIAL PREFERENCE, Recommended by Lord Balfour's Committee, 339.
Proposal discussed, 339-47.
Effect on relation to U. S., 346.
- IMPERIAL WAR CABINET, Constitution and criticism, 268-70, 314-6, 319-20.
Resolutions adopted, 316-9.
To be made permanent, 316.
- IMPERIALISM, Sometimes mere "jingling guineas", 9.
Propaganda, 189-91, 267-8.
Danger of to Canadian nationality, 224.
Stages of in Canada, 271.
Lord Roseberry's definition, 274.
Control of Canada, 271-3, 284.
Consent and control of colonies contrasted, 274, 325-6.
Canadian policy settled in London, 319-20.
Australia's objection, 391-2.
British attack on Canada, 390.
The enemy in Canada and in Europe, 393.
Lord Milner the chief figure, 393.
Exploitations of Canada: See Canadian Resources.
- INDIA, No contribution to navy, 23.
British v. Canadian interests, 206.
Proposal of Mr. Curtis, 286-8.
Proposal of Mr. Lash, 287-9.
India's own proposal, 287-8.
Sir Robert Borden's change of policy, 312-4.
British pressure on Sir Robert Borden, 312-4.
- INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES, Canada's admission to, 205, 232-7.
See Declaration of London; Declaration of Paris; Declaration of St. Petersburg; Geneva Convention.
- JAMESON, SIR STARR, See Empire Resources Development Committee.
- JAPAN, Canada's war obligations to, 3.
British diplomacy, 145.
- KEITH, MR. J. B., Opinion as to Canadian troops under British officers, 4, 5.
- KINGDOM CLUBS, Establishment advocated, 189-92, 207.
- KINGDOM OF CANADA, Canada really a kingdom, 200.
King George is King of Canada, 200.
Proposed by Sir John A. Macdonald, 367-85.
- KINGDOM PAPERS, Interruption of, 267.
- LANDS, See Canadian Lands.
- LASH, MR. Z. A., British control of Canada, 273.
His scheme examined, 281-300.
- LAURIER, SIR WILFRID, Attitude on relations with U. K., 3.
View of Canadian obligation to U. K., 43.
"Call us to your Councils", 155.
From democrat to knight, 295.
Mistakes at Imperial conferences, 308-12.
Proposal for Dominions Royal Commission, 323-4.
See Treaty-Making Power; War; Canadian Sovereignty.