WINTER FOLLOWS GLIMPSE OF SPRING

Snowstorm With Strong Wind Swept Over Province.

CARS WERE DELAYED

Trains Were Kept Late, But Not So Much as Expected.

Northern lights and profound dision on or about Wednesday and Thursday; great storm and hurricane blasts Saturday night and Sunday. This was the history of last week. On Wednesday all was bright and serene, and the genial smile of spring was upon the land. On Sunday steely winter set his blast upon the meadows and streams of Ontario. The middle of last week found the banks of the of last week found the banks of the rivers and the gardens of the home lovers baring themselves to the gaze of the inquisitive, and there was a general feeling that winter had sped on his accustomed way, and that spring was in the air.

But the fields are once more clothed a mentile of wintry white, and deep in a mantle of wintry white, and the streets of Toronto are in even the streets of Toronto are in many cases a foot deep right across from pave to pave, and in some instances there are drifts more than three feet deep. Altho the wind appeared to be blowing at a gait of about a hundred miles an hour the official records give a maximum of 50 miles an hour, and the lowest temperature recorded for both Saturday and Sunday was 11 degrees above. But the snowfall was by no means one of small calibre, and almost 7 inches fell on the level. e railroads were not so badly ted as might have been imagined, and the only late arrivals were apparently the Grand Trunk from Portland, which was due to arrive at 5.45 p.m., but did not get in until nearly 10 o'clock, and the C. P. R. from Montreal, which was scheduled to reach the Union Station and did not get in at all, being canceled en route. THEATRES OPEN TODAY.

Toronto's theatres open today. The order for the closing of all places of amusement on Mondays has been canceled by the fuel controller, with the result that local theatres are again open for patrons at the regular performances. The vaudeville houses and burlesque shows will open with the usual matiness, while the legi-timate productions will be given their first presentation at night. All the moving-picture theatres open at their regular hours today, and on the fol-lowing Mondays which were to have been heatless the same rule will pre-

"Pom-Pom" Tonight. Altho the brilliant ballet scene, "Benind the Scenes, on which the first curtain rises, when the saucy star, Mitzi, comes to the Princess tonight in Henry W. Savage's comic opera, "Pom-Pom." is supposed to principally please by its picturesque values, it is a ballet of possibilities. Four of its members are trained ballet dancers and have served their apprenticeship in the Metropolitan Opera House hallet of New York, but as Henry W. Savage chose his company for "Pom-Pom" to play "parts" each of the ballet must be able to not only dance but sing and act. There will be both Wednesday and Saturday matinees during the Week's engagement of Mitzi in "Pom-Pom" at the Princess.

"Les Miserables." The attraction at the Royal Alexandra Theatre this week, with daily matine rins week, with daily matinees, commencing this afternoon, is a picturization of Victor Hugo's greatest novel, "Les Miserables," produced by William Fox, with William Farnum, America's greatest character actor, in the title role of Jean Valjean. "Les Miserables" in film form is exactly as the author must have visualized it. That is one of the highest compliments and finest tributes that can be paid to the remarkable photodrama which has been made from

As Welcome as the Flowers in May--- This Fine Wool Which Has Come Safely Across the Atlantic --- Buy it While the Buying's Good

Every week that goes by furnishes proof of the increasing difficulties that we must face in the procuring of wool. We are not in the habit of borrowing trouble---in fact our principle is to rejoice in present blessings---and it's because we have been favored by a particularly fine shipment of Scotch Fingering that we want you to share in our good fortune. We strongly advise you to lay in a stock from this purchase.

It's a magnificent collection of wool---such beautiful quality, such fine finish. And it's varied, too.

There's Cameline Wool, a delightful yarn for the "special" pair of socks or the nicest sort of scarf. It's a soft, natural color, four-ply yarn. A limited quantity only at, per pound ... $4.00

Grey Wool-500 pounds only, an admirable four-ply yarn that sells regularly at $3.50 a pound, and is fully worth it. This is one of the best wool bargains we've ever offered in our Wool Section. $2.50

Navy Wool, for the sailors, a splendid four-ply yarn for socks and scarfs. Per pound $3.50

Four-Ply Wool in white, khaki and natural, a most desirable quality. Per pound $3.50

Jap Silk Kimonos A Special Line at $10.00

One gets delightful glimpses of Japan in these pretty Silk Kimonos that so closely resemble the national dress of these far-away Islands. The Japanese embroiderer dearly loves to make artistic reproductions in silk of the beauties of his native country, and so we find these gowns all aflower with cherry blossoms and chrysanthemums, while gay-colored butterflies and demure birds seem to flutter about, as in a garden.

Among the new Silk Kimonos to reach us recently, we make special mention of a delightful choice at $10.00 in pink, rose, Copen., sky, maize and black. These gowns are silk-lined and interlined. They have the regulation Jap sleeve and the characteristic at the lower edge. We have lower-priced and higher-priced kimonos than this $10.00 line. We mention these in particular be-cause we think them uncommonly

Concerning the New Hats And, in Particular --- Yours

Nearly every woman one meets has either just bought her new spring hat, or is just about to do so.

If you are in the latter class—if you have still before you the joyous anticipation of finding "your" hat among the galaxy of beauty that has come from the designers' hands —let us suggest that you pay an immediate visit to our Millinery Room, just to see how wide is the choice, how delightful the variety that the department affords,

The shapes are so becoming this season—there's the demure "poke," the smart mushroom and the ever-popular sailor. There's a marked simplicity in the trimming which cannot but commend itself to the woman of good taste, and the quiet coloring of the models is an equally welcome point

You must come soon and inspect these hats. You'll find charming models from $8.50 up.

Men's New Shirts. Ties, Socks, and So On

"The Salt of the Earth" the Latest War Book

It's different from the ordinary run of books about the war author, Mrs. Alfred Sedgwick, —and intensely interesting. Its gives a splendid account of the experiences of a young married woman who was in Germany during the early days of many during the early days of the war. Brenda Muder was of German parentage, but was brought up in England. She marries a German, and, though British in every thought, she goes back to the native land of her parents to live. Things as they were in Germany during the latter part of 1914 are deacrified with thrilling interest. scribed with thrilling interest. This latest success is on sale in our Book Section.
