thirty-five minutes' ride from down-town. These little farms have a frontage of one hundred and sixty-five feet by a depth of one hundred and thirty-two feet, or equal to seven city lots.

The soil is a rich clay loam, the finest for agriculture purposes. There is plenty of pure, fresh water, and you are only a few minutes' walk from church, school, postoffice and stores.

You can grow your own fruit and vegetables, raise your own chickens, and in a short time be independent.

The prices have been specially reduced to close the estate, and we are now offering the remaining gardens at less than they cost the original owners. Some of the choicest are still for sale and you can buy them on your own easy terms.

meeting of the newsprint service bureau of New York was held here at the Ritz-Carlton today. J. A. B. Cowles, New York, presided In an address he pointed out that the United States Government had recognized on the other hand the laborers' right to organize without interference, and on the other hand, the manufacturers' right to organize He manufacturers' right to organize. He suggested the appointment of a commixtee of experts, who would be in a position to advise individual manufacturers regarding the forestalling of labor difficulties. Its aim would not by any means be to control labor, but to adjust the relationship between labor and employer.

R. S. Kellogg, the secretary, in the course of his quarterly report, pointed out that the week ending August 10 had shown that the stocks on hand at the mills in the United States were the lowest on record /Production in at the mills in the United Stakes were the lowest on record. /Production in Canada had been slightly greater in 1918 than in 1917, but the decreased production in the United States had made the total amount of newsprint manufactured three per cent. less than last year, while the total mill stock on hand on July 31 was 41 per cent. less than that on hand last year.

red the Union Stock Yards Market yesterday, the deliveries of fresh stock amounting to only 252 cattle, 73 calves, 237 hogs and 225 sheep and lambs. In no line was there enough to really con-stitute a market or give rise to any keen competition.

stitute a market or give rise to any keen competition.

A good many of the unsold cows left over from Monday's big market were cleaned up at practically unchanged prices, tho some of the drovers and commission houses seemed to think the market was a trifle easier.

The lamb market firmed up a bit and sold from 75c to $1 higher, and the calf market was 25c up while sheep held steady.

The hog market is a good deal of a conundrum and the packers have announced that 19½c, fed and watered, is, and will be, the price for the week, this decision is not looked upon as altogether conclusive. One bunch sold yesterday at 20½c, selects, fed and watered, but the run was very light and we will have to wait until today to see what the market really is on hogs.
