David Lamb, began a three-months' job of cleaning out Hanlan's lagoon yesterday. The course will be dredged to 12 feet of water from the bridge to the north end of the course, and next year south of the bridge.

Land 300 feet in width will be made on the west side of the course and a splendid be had from the new land made. The rowing and canoe men of the city are indebted to those active friends in the council who have stood by them.

INTER-CITY CHECKERS.

Gossip of the Recent Game Between Toronto and Hamilton Experts.

The return match between Toronto and Hamilton checker experts was played this week at Hamilton. Twenty players faced the board to try conclusions, and this time Hamilton won by a score of 46 to 43, which was a very close match, consider-ing the number of games played, viz., 120.

Several of the Hamilton players sprang surprises, defeating some of Toronto's strongest players. Mr. Dixon, who got six draws with Walton at the last match, beat his man easily by 4 and 2 draws.

The games played between Barrett and Walton ended up with 4 draws. Neither player was able to get a win, and both seemed satisfied with the result.

After the match had been finished, Mr. Hoar of Buffalo gave an exhibition by playing four picked men simultaneously—Garvin of Ottawa, Parrett of Toronto, Jacobs of England and Walton of Hamilton. Jacobs and Barrett drew with the expert, but Garvin and Walton were tangled up in their games and could not recover.

Graduates of Twenty Years' Standing Urge Appointment of Governors

At the reunion of the class of 1887 of the University of Toronto, held at Mc-Conkey's, the question of the presidency of the university was discussed other referred to the very high appreciation of Principal Hutton for his work at the university, while they were stu-dents, but more especially to the high regard and esteem in which he is held by the public generally in the commu-nities where the graduates now reside. His work as principal of University Col-lege, and later as acting president of the university, his administrative ability in that capacity, and his appreciation of affairs of the university for the past year.

His literary attainments and the success that has marked his work as professor at University College, long since secured him the esteem of the whole
