NO RINGS ON GIANNETTI

WHEN HE REACHED HOTEL Detectives Find Woman Who Rode on Street Car and Who Saw No Ornaments.

What bothers the Toronto detectives in the Giannetti case is, "Did Gian-netti have the diamond rings which the prisoner, Vetrouille, says he gave the dead man in New York?"

Detective McArthur has found a woman who says that shortly after noon Wednesday she rode west on a Queen-street car with him. She says he got off at Beacousfield-avenue, at the Cecil Hotel, corner. This would be 12.30 o'clock. The man had either been on the car or she had not seen him get off. She noticed him about Simcoe-street. He appeared nervous.

He had no rings on his hands, but she noticed the tie pin. He had no valise. She identified the body at Norman Craig's undertaking rooms yesterday.

This would go to show that Giannetti did not have baggage. The hotelkeeper says he had none and John B. A. Richards, 1213 West Queen-street, the colored barber who shaved Giannetti at 1.30 o'clock that afternoon, and from whom he purchased the fatal razor, noticed the pin, but says he had neither rings nor any valise. He said he reminded his hands, as he was nervous and kept moving them.

Richards says that when Giannetti hurried into he promised to come back again in reply to the usual polite request.

It would now appear that Giannetti did not get off at the Parkdale station, but at the Union, else how would he be found in the neighborhood of Yengestreet on a westbound car on Queen-street.

It now further appears that if Gian-netti ever had the rings as indicated by his letters, directing their disposition, he was not wearing them. The police believe that the missing Ezio Coraneo may have them, "receiving them from Giannetti before he was seen on the car."

They were given him by Vetrouille for use and not adornment, and he may have pawned them here, or in New York, but, if so, where are the tickets.

WAITING AT THE WHARF.

A crowd of about 20 people were kept waiting on the R. & O. docks for several hours last night for the steamer Belleville, due at 1.30 p.m. At 10.30 one of the weary ones, unable to obtain any information from the office, phoned to Bowmanville and learned that the steamer had not even then reached that port.

NO KIND OF PREFERENCE
INVOLVING TAXATIONMr. Asquith Speaks Concerning Laurier's Pronouncement.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—Mr. Asquith, speaking on Saturday night, referred to Laurier's pronouncement that none but Britain would have given autonomy to South Africa. Laurier, he said, then spoke with the voice of empire, not with the voice of the small, disappointed nation at home.

Alluding to preference, Mr. Asquith said the United Kingdom could not adopt any form of preference involving taxation of meat, and raw material and the colonists, on their part, could give no form of preference which would admit the British manufacturer on level terms into competition with their own protected industries. That was the principle upon which the nation in colonial administration.

GOVERNOR A PRISONER.

San Luis, Argentina, in the Throes of Revolution.

Buenos Ayres, Argentina, Aug.
24.—A local revolution broke out last night in the City of San Luis, capital of the Province of San Luis, a town of 15,000 inhabitants, and situated about 140 miles southwest of Buenos Ayres.

The chief of police was the leader of the insurrection, and the governor and other provincial authorities were made prisoners. The insurrectionists immediately placed a new governor, Eduardo Adare and installed him in office.

News from San Luis to-night reports that complete quiet has been restored and further disturbances are not anticipated.

VILLAGES SUBMERGED.

believed to be the heaviest that have been experienced for years, are reported from Central Japan. Some villages have been completely submerged. The extent of the damage done is not known, but it is believed to be very heavy.

Shuberts and Klaw & Erlanger Agents Fight in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Aug. 25.—Representatives of Klaw & Erlanger and the Shub-erts took forcible possession of the Lyric Theatre here Sunday morning after a fight in which it is said revolvers were used, and in which the Shuberts were victorious. The theatre, which has been in the hands of the Shuberts for many years, was taken over by the Klaw & Erlanger party. The Shuberts were ejected from the playhouse.
After ejecting the Shuberts and the attendants the doors were barricaded, locks changed and a guard placed at all the entrances.

Nicholas Murphy, K.C., who for of the throat, was a little weaker last night. He had another hemorrhage

THE DEAF MAY HEAR

The Story of the Electrical Engineer, Geo. P. Way, Whose Lost Hearing Was Restored by His Own Invention.

About nine years ago Mr. Geo. P. Way, electrical engineer of the Detroit Young Men's Christian Association, could scarcely hear the roaring of his own engines and dynamos as he passed among them.

To-day he is to all appearances possessed of perfect hearing. Yet when he removes two tiny devices from his ears he is quite as badly off as before.

Mr. Way's deafness had been increasing for years, until it had reached the point where he was unable to hear his wife's voice across the dinner table, and his usefulness as an engineer was at an end.

It was then that he happened, as Mr. Way tells it, that he was at his post in the dynamo room, one day nearly nine years ago, and as the buzzing in his ears became more and more annoying, he placed a curiously shaped tuft of waste in his right ear. Then a most remarkable thing happened. In the midst of the silence that is the torment of one shut out from the world of the busy world, there came a terrible crashing sound as of an earthquake, and Mr. Way bounded across the room, terror-stricken.

He sat down in his chair and tried to realize what had happened. Unconsciously he pulled the tuft of waste from his ear. Instantly he returned to the awful silence that had enveloped him for years. The sound of the machinery came to him as far away; he no longer heard his assistant's curious questions. Then the truth came to him and he realized that a new day had dawned for him. Mr. Way rushed home to tell his wife the good news. Then for five years he experimented constantly to put his accidental discovery to use.

The Way Ear Drum was the result of his labors, and he wore it with splendid results. Others, of course, heard of the marvel, and he was overwhelmed with requests for one of these little ear phones from friends as well as from people of whom he never knew.

A number of wealthy business men in Detroit, who have known Mr. Way for years, knew of his deafness and the marvelously quick results which his invention had brought, gave him full financial backing and endorsement, that he might extend to the largest possible number of people which his ear drums bring to those who are suffering from impaired hearing and deafness, and every day witnesses a large increase in the volume of demand, as the sale of one pair of the Way Ear Drums produces many other sales.

Nine persons out of every ten who have tried the Way Ear Drums have been benefited by them in "The Wizard of Oz," and naturally are quick to testify of their value to fellow-sufferers.

Mr. Way, whose home office is 1318 Majestic Building, Detroit, Mich., believes there are very few cases of deafness that his drums will not relieve, and he is anxious to meet the deaf and those who suffer from impaired hearing.

Mr. Way will be in Toronto, at the King Edward Hotel, from Monday, Aug. 26th, until Saturday, Sept. 7th. All who are deaf should be sure to call on him. It will cost nothing to learn whether he can help you or not.

Take the elevator and the attendant will show you to Mr. Way's Parlor.

Parisian Belles, Burlesques.

Everything is in readiness at the Princess Theatre to-night for the opening of the season. "Before and After" will be the attraction, where Leo Ditrichstein and his merry company are warranted to cure the worst cases of blues on record with their comedy, "The Top o' the World." The extra attraction, "A Message From Mars," will be a thing of the future, and is something doing every minute, and ridiculous situations follow one another in this evening. The extra attention for the blues nothing better could be offered.

Mary Ann Brown, a most charming English comedienne, will head the splendid bill to be presented at Shea's Theatre all this week. The extra attraction is Mr. and Mrs. Truesdell.
In "Two Men and a Bottle." Others are the Wopert Trio, Gotham Comedy club, Almont and Dumont, Annie and Effie Conley, Kroneman Bros., and the kinetograph.

It is a positive fact that Taylor's Parisian Belles, which will be the attraction at the Star Theatre to-night, this afternoon, is one of the largest and most complete burlesque organizations in the field. This season's offering is "A Pair of Plums," which is a new musical comedy, and "Whirlie Girlie," a furiously funny burlesque.

After having a look at the dress rehearsal on Saturday night, it is easy to realize that no expense has been spared in the staging and costuming of "The Top o' the World," the attraction which will open the Royal Alexandra Theatre to-night. This new musical extravaganza is under the management of the Shubert Theatrical Co., who are noted for their magnificent stage productions. This production has been selected as an especial entertainment for the occasion of the house's opening. It will be elaborately staged in two acts and scenes. The story has been woven round a Klondike locale. Seventy people, including principals, will take part. The book is by Mark E.
Clegg, the lyrics by James O'Donoghue, and music by Manuel Klein and Anna Caldwell. Miss Blanche Wayne will sing the title song, "The Wizard of Oz." John D. Gilbert in the part of "Queen Aurora," one of the leading complications. Others will be Anna Leahy, who overcame the "Wizard of Oz," Dorothy in "The Wizard of Oz"; William Rock, Kathleen Clifford, an English girl; Arthur Hill, formerly the bustling lion in "The Wizard of Oz"; Farleigh, the English tenor.
John McVeigh, long associated with the "Wizard of Oz," will be assisted by several dancing novelties.

"A Message From Mars" has delightful humor, brilliant dialog, realism in its scenic embellishments, and is of splendid theatrical architecture.
The comedy is certainly well and pleasantly remembered here, and will be the opening attraction at the Grand Theatre this evening. The promise is made that it will be presented in a manner as when here before.

"A Race Across the Continent," which will be presented for the first time in this city at the Majestic Theatre, commencing with a matinee to-day, is a scenic melodrama with a strong local interest in the thirteen scenes. It is said to be a play of intense dramatic interest presented by a cast of undoubted excellence, and an entertaining specialty are promised.

ready to swoop down upon it at the other cities.

Charge—State of Anarchy Pervades the Country.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—Premier Clem-rection of the Moroccan situation. He conferred with Foreign Minister Pichon, War Minister Picquart and Minister of Marine Thomson, and to-morrow will go to Rambouillet to see President Felleries.

The Journal des Debats, in an editorial as to the effect of M. Clemenceau's return on the Moroccan situation, says:
"He knows the state of the situation, the dispositions of the various chancellors. He ought to know that politics to-day, not only are most uncertain, but that which is said and that which is done are essential."

Advices received to-day from Cas-
