Yesterday we opened for sale our complete assortment of Gentlemen's Hats.

We happened to light on a good bright day, and things were brisk in the hat department.

The different lines of English Stiff Felt Derby Hats appealed strongly to the fastidious dressers. English Hats, because of the preferential tariff, are exceptional value this year. They command the world's markets.

Great English Derby Hats, $2.50, $3 and $4. American Derby Hats, $2, $3 and $3.50

LABOR PROBLEM ACUTE.

C. C. James, deputy minister of agriculture, has returned to town from his holiday trip to the coast. He expressed some surprise in reference to the price of good fruit land in British Columbia, which he found to be held at $100 per acre, but the most difficult question requiring solution in the west is the labor problem.

"The House That Quality Built"

We Would Like to Make Your Clothes

and you ought to like us to make your clothes. Thousands of Canada's most particular dressers do. Because to say "quality" means "quality" here. Quality in the cloths. Quality in the "style." Quality in the making. And quality counts to-day as it did 65 years ago when the "Score's" sign went up over the door. New Fall Suitings and Overcoatings—25.00 to 28.00.

ASKS THAT COUNTY JUDGE PROBE CIVIC PARK DEPT.

Controller Hocken Charges Commissioner Chambers With Failure to Preserve Discipline.

The proposal was made at yesterday's board of control meeting by Controller Hocken that an investigation should be made by the county judge into the park commissioner's department, in connection with the charges that Commissioner Chambers has not taken steps to discipline David Kimmins, caretaker of Island Park, whose work is claimed to have suffered thru his being intoxicated while on duty.

It was decided to have Mr. Chambers appear before the board, as his written report in reply to the charges made that liquor drinking took place in a house within his enclosure at Island Park, was not considered satisfactory.

The report said that, so far as Mr. Chambers could learn, there was a lack of facts to substantiate the statement that much drinking went on. The report continued: If the designation of it as a drinking place is warranted by facts of which the chief constable is possessed, he should, in my opinion, make them known, so that any action which is entitled to be taken, or which is desirable, may be instituted.

The cottage, he says, was rented in June, 1906, to Robert Hingham at $25 per season. No application was made for it this year, and the commissioner had no knowledge that it was being occupied.

Controller Hocken flatly declared he was not satisfied with the report and wouldn't accept it. Complaints showing that Kimmins was frequently intoxicated and not fit to attend to his duties, and the controller had complained to Mr. Chambers ever since the beginning of the season. The commissioner had admitted to him that Kimmins abused his men and was at times intoxicated. Yet he does not propose to discipline Kimmins. This is most extraordinary. If this is the state of affairs at Island Park it may be so at every other park, he commented adding, "if, as he admits, he does not know what has been going on at the park, he is derelict in his duty, and I will move that the county judge conduct an investigation into the conduct of the department as to whether it is administered economically and efficiently."

The controller instanced the lack of discipline exerted by Kimmins over his employees by saying that one of his men had taken him by the throat and thrown him from a scow as a result of his bullying methods.

Controller Hubbard thought such a move too drastic, as the trouble was only between the head of a department and an official. He suggested having the commissioner appear before the board and Controller Ward agreed that, if the charges were true, the caretaker should be dismissed.

Sea Wall Extension. A plan for the extension of the sea wall from Indian-road to the Humber was submitted by Controller Ward. Two alternative schemes were: One provided for a sea wall 200 feet out from the shore, with harbors for small boats at Dowling-avenue and at Indian-road. The cost of this wall would be $23,000. The other scheme called for a sea wall 200 feet from the shore at the east end from Bathurst-street to Dowling-avenue, and at the west end from Indian-road to the Humber. The remaining 1800 feet of the wall between Dowling-avenue and Indian-road would be constructed at a distance of 600 feet from the shore, with an artificial lake inside suitable for a rowing course. The cost of carrying it out would be $300,000.

The board took the stand that the controller had been too hasty in having the city engineer prepare the plans without consulting his colleagues. Controller Hubbard objected that the rowing course was an entirely new proposition, involving extra expense. The whole plan was then indefinitely shelved.

Erect Charity Hospital. Dr. Sheard suggested that, on investigation of the conditions to be created by the decision of the Toronto hospitals to increase the rate for poor patients from 50c to the per day, it might be found advisable for the city to erect a hospital for this class of patients.

The controllers were favorably impressed, and also decided to apply to the provincial government for a per diem allowance of 20 cents per day for poor patients admitted to the Isolation Hospital.

SECOND IN RANK. New Vein on the T. & H. Bay is Thirty Inches Wide.

Further details regarding the new find of the Temiskaming & Hudson Bay Mining Co. were received to-day. The new vein is 30 inches wide and ranks second in width to no other vein in the camp. It has been stripped for a distance of 20 feet and shows good samples of cobalt and silver. This vein was discovered on Monday, Sept. 9, noon. It is situated about 100 yards northwest of their old strike, and workings on the new find will be commenced at once. A full force of men will be at work on Sept. 23.

Engine Jumped Track. Yet another accident occurred at Bay-street crossing, the "hoodoo spot," yesterday. Fortunately it was unattended by any loss of life, although some of the men working near had some very narrow escapes. C.P.R. engine 1100, in charge of Engineer Falls, jumped the switch point west of the crossing and damaged her pilot so badly that it will have to be replaced, while other repairs are also required. Some difficulty was experienced in replacing the disabled engine on the track, engines 2172 and 2117 being employed for an hour or more.

REPORT ON DOCTRINE IS FINALLY REVISED

Text of the Alterations—Much More Work to Be Done.

The joint committee on church union made its final revision yesterday of the report of the sub-committee, so far as read, on doctrine.

Article 5, which is "of the Sin of Man," was deferred till further consideration, but the first four articles were agreed to with slight revisions. Paragraph 13 "of the Law of God" was discussed at some length, but was finally adopted.

Some changes in doctrinal statements were recommended by the doctrinal sub-committee. The first was the revising of the last sentence in the preface to the original report: "We further maintain our allegiance to the evangelical doctrines of the reformation, as set forth in common in the standards of the united church."

The original Article 11, which is "of justification and sonship," has been revised also. "We believe that God pardons our sins and accepts us as righteous solely on the ground of the perfect obedience and sacrifice of Christ, received by faith alone, and that believers are adopted as sons of God, with a right to all the privileges therein implied, including a conscious assurance of their sonship."

The revision reads: "We believe that God pardons our sins and accepts us as righteous solely on the ground of the perfect obedience and sacrifice of Christ, received by faith alone, and that believers are adopted as sons of God, with a right to all the privileges therein implied, including a conscious assurance of their sonship."

God, on the sole ground of the perfect obedience and sacrifice of Christ, pardons those who by faith receive Him as their Saviour and Lord, accepts them as righteous and bestows upon them the adoption of sons, with a right to all the privileges therein implied, including a conscious assurance of their sonship.

The committees have much more work to do. The joint committee has only discussed the first thirteen articles on doctrine as yet. There are still six articles to be discussed, on doctrine alone, besides the report of the sub-committee on polity and ministry, which the discussions which these will no doubt lead to.

The trustees at the Metropolitan Church banqueted the members of the committees in the reception room at the church last night, and a most enjoyable time was spent.

ALASKAN BOUNDARY CANARD

Reported Discovery of Proof That Russia Tried Fraud.

OTTAWA, Sept. 13.—(Special).—A despatch from Winnipeg states that some ancient Russian documents have been unearthed in Alaska, which materially affect Canada's position on the Alaska boundary question, showing how Russia forged evidence of early occupation of the Pacific coast, and that one of the documents was a direction to the Governor of Alaska in 1836 to bring secretly tablets bearing the Russian coat of arms to various places on the coast.

Dr. W. F. King, Dominion astronomer and chief advisor to the Canadian section of the Alaska boundary commission, says that this incident has nothing to do with the boundary question. "Those tablets," said Dr. King, "do not decide anything, and were not referred to at the time. They may be all true, but they could have no bearing on the boundary question. The boundary was determined according to negotiation for treaty between Great Britain and Russia in 1825. "What did Russia know about Canada in 1825? Canada was then two provinces, and they were separated from the rest of the territories by the whole of the Northwest. If there were any documents with Russia at that time, they would have been between Russia and Great Britain, but certainly no reference to Canada at all. Canada did not have any port until 1871."

AN'ECHO OF JULY 12TH.

Wm. Weir Freed by Sessions' Jury on Charge of Obstructing Police. William Weir was yesterday acquitted on a charge of obstructing Inspector Cuddy—in the discharge of his duty at the corner of Queen and Jarvis-streets during the late Orange procession. Weir swore that he was rushing to save a woman, who was in danger from a car. As he did so he brushed aside the inspector, but not in the way of disrespect or of anger. Other witnesses corroborated Weir, but Inspector Cuddy stated that he was taken by the shoulders and shoved very forcibly out of the way. In his address to the jury, Mr. Robinson, for Weir, strongly pointed out the greatness of the day to the North of Ireland man. He satisfied the jury that Weir was truly celebrating in honest fashion, and that he did not intend to commit any crime or make a disturbance. The following true bills were returned by the grand jury: Charles Bagneto, three charges of wounding; Clara Rankin, theft; John Chatter, horse-stealing. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty on the advice of Judge Winchester in the case of assault on P.C. Aiken, and Matthew Breen was discharged. Ramsbury, his comrade, charged with assault on P.C. Holden, was also discharged. His honor held that the evidence was doubtful, and that the prisoners should have the benefit of the doubt.
