

THE DIAMOND JUBILEE

Suggestions for Its Celebration by Canadians.

AN ADDRESS TO THE QUEEN

Asking for a Visit from the Duke and Duchess of York.

A new issue of postage stamps also talked of as a fitting recognition—rumor that the Solicitor-General is going to issue in connection with the school question—keeping Yankee fishermen straight—adulterated honey discovered—one official reinstated—general news from Ottawa.

Ottawa, Jan. 20.—(Special.)—Bumor has it that Parliament will be asked to pass an address to the Queen inviting the Duke and Duchess of York to visit Canada during the present year.

Representations have been made to the Postmaster-General that it would be fitting for the Government to recognize the Queen's jubilee year by an entirely new issue of postage stamps. Since the matter was first called to the attention of Mr. Mulock some of the philatelic societies have been moving in the same direction, although doubtless these gentlemen are more interested from a personal than from a patriotic standpoint. On his return to Ottawa, it is said, the Postmaster-General will decide whether or not to recommend his colleagues to make a change in the present stamp issue.

FISH PROTECTION FLEET.

Capt. Spain, in charge of the fisheries protective service, leaves for the Maritime Provinces tomorrow. He will visit all the vessels of the protection fleet now in winter quarters, and make arrangements for such repairs as may be necessary. During his absence from Ottawa Capt. Spain will hold one or two official receptions.

As far as the Fisheries Department is concerned it may be stated that no radical changes are being contemplated pending the decision of the Judicial Committee on the question of fisheries jurisdiction. In the meantime given fishery matters will be pretty much at a standstill.

TO CONSULT THE VATICAN.

It was reported last week that the object of Solicitor-General Fitzpatrick's visit to Europe had to do with fisheries matters. It is now known, however, that his real object of his visit is for the purpose of interviewing the authorities of the Vatican and to secure their interference with the hierarchy in Canada, so that they may withdraw their opposition to the settlement of the fisheries question. It is now definitely understood that Abbe Frouin's visit to Rome on behalf of the Dominion Government was a failure.

YANKEE FISHING LICENSES.

An order-in-council has been passed approving of the draft of the licenses to be issued to American fishing vessels this year. This license will contain the same clause as last year, which declares that it will become null and void if any of the goods, supplies and advantages obtained thereunder are sold or transferred to another United States fishing vessel which is not owned by a citizen of the United States. It is now known that the United States fishing vessels took out licenses, and it was discovered that they were in the habit of selling the supplies procured under license to other vessels without licenses. Last year, with the clause inserted, 78 vessels took out licenses.

SPURIOUS WHISKEY.

The Department of Inland Revenue was notified to-day that Messrs. Hiram Walker & Sons have discovered a firm in Chicago which is putting up an inferior class of whiskey, labelling it "Canadian" and imitating the cork, capsules and labels of Messrs. Walker, as well as the Canadian Government stamp. The firm will prosecute the parties to the full extent of the United States law. A few weeks ago the firm was successful in securing a conviction for infringement of their trade marks in the States. The initiation of the Canadian Government stamp on a sample in possession of the department is exceedingly good.

MR. REDMOND CAUGHT.

Mr. John E. Redmond, M. P. for

HE GETS HIS DIVORCE

Princess of Chimay Admits All the Charges

NOW BROUGHT AGAINST HER

She Wishes the Privilege of Seeing Her Children at Intervals.

This One Favor Her Counsel Asks of the Court—How the Newspaper Reporters Were Excluded in the Interests of the Chimay Family—The Prince, it is Said, Will be Given His Decree Without the Introduction of Any Testimony.

New York, Jan. 20.—Auguste Vireit cables The Journal from Charleroi, Belgium: A great crowd of barriers and journalists assembled to-day in the Court of the First Instance here on the occasion of the opening of the Chimay divorce suit. The German, English, French and Belgian papers were well represented.

Maitre Auguste Bessieret and Leon Delacroix appeared for Prince Chimay, who sat near them. Maitre Allain of Paris was counsel for the Princess, who of course, did not attend.

The proceedings were opened at 9:30 a.m. by the judicial registrar declaring that, as no plea of non receipt had been adduced by either side, the court admitted the demand for a divorce, and the president affirmed. They would have to examine whether there were grounds for granting the decree de plano, in other words, at once, or whether they ought to order an investigation.

CLEARED THE COURT ROOM.

The public prosecutor called attention to the fact that the public was composed of "professionals in industry," and added that there was ground to fear that their appearance meant a distortion of scandalous narrative to the further ends of the world, hence he asked, for the sake of the honor of the Chimay family, that the case be heard behind closed doors.

The robed barristers were accordingly only allowed to remain, and the rest of the court was cleared.

In the course of the proceedings in camera, Delacroix dealt with a certain number of facts concerning the Princess' private misconduct, which he constituted a grave wrong, demanded by the law to justify the granting of a divorce. Counsel took special pains to explain the relations of the Princess with Rigo, declaring that the period of her first faux pas dated as far back from the early days of her marriage.

He read extracts from Gil Blas of Paris, asserting that the Princess was not one of those women who concealed a flirtation, and that Rigo, calling himself Aloise, successively lived in Villers La Tour and Long Evex in the Chimay country. Indeed, at one time the burgomaster of Long Evex intervened in a special order, in a carriage full of police, and requested him to show his identification papers. The Princess' clothes were found in a carriage into the courtyard of the inn where Rigo lived and sent away the vehicle, while at others she made it wait before the front door.

BEGGED FOR FORGIVENESS.

Before she eloped the Princess sent a letter to her husband, asking forgiveness, and paying tribute to his gentle and upright character, and declaring she wished to live no longer near her children, whose minds she would sully.

The act for Paris with Rigo, the steward of the chateau and his wife. En route the steward asked if she did not regret her children. The Princess answered: "Yes, but don't let's think about it any more. Let's have a good dinner."

All four visited together the Ambassadeur and Pallard's restaurant. In the course of the dinner the Princess, thinking she saw the steward's wife casting too many loving glances at her, wrote to her husband several hours later, warning him to keep a close eye on his better half.

DEMANDS A DECREE.

Counsel concluded by asking that a decree of divorce should be pronounced without preliminary enquiry, since the facts were proven.

Maitre Allain, for the defence, admitted the charges against the Princess, but contended that the story of her conduct in the inn at Long Evex was not sufficiently established, and more than were other statements spread about in public regarding Rigo and the princess.

Allain added that Mrs. Ward gave her daughter a deplorable education, so that she was not in the least fitted for the life of the sort her new situation demanded. On the other hand, the Princess was not sufficiently obliging towards her. He possessed no authority over his wife, whom he neglected in order to go hunting.

Finally, the counsel stated, that he had no objection to an immediate decree of divorce.

HER DIGNITY.

Miss COLUMBIA, with asperity: Waal, Mr. Larry, if you really want to propose, don't you think it'd be a little more delicate too come 'n' do it yourself?

GREAT BLAZE AT PETERBORO.

The New Mill of the Consolidated Milling Company Goes Up In Smoke—Loss $75,000.

Peterboro, Ont., Jan. 20.—One of the largest fires that Peterboro has ever seen occurred here last night, shortly before 10 o'clock, in the fine new mill just finished by the Dickson Company for the Consolidated Milling Company. The alarm was sent in by telephone to the fire station, and in short order the nose wagon was on the scene, when the mill was a huge mass of smoke, but no flames were visible. It soon broke out, however, and in a short time, despite the efforts of the firemen, spread to the planing mill adjoining. The loss is a severe one, both to owners and lessees, and more particularly to her husband, asking forgiveness, and paying tribute to his gentle and upright character, and declaring she wished to live no longer near her children, whose minds she would sully.

OUR ROSSLAND SPECIAL.

Many Arrivals from the East—A New Company Being Formed With Toronto People In It.

Rossland, B.C., Jan. 20.—(Special to The World, via Spokane, Wash.)—There are many arrivals from the east every day. Many come looking for work, but they will have a hard time. There are plenty of experienced men here and arriving at all vacancies, and those without means find better remain at home.

NO WHAT THEY WANTED.

The Winter of 1896-7 Was Not the Kind Desired by the Fur Trade.

The weather of the past few months has hardly been all that could have been desired by the fur trade, but notwithstanding this, the Dineen report a satisfactory season's business, and as the season is now pretty nearly over, the firm are stocktaking, and are in the meantime offering some decided bargains.

There will still be time to wear furs this year, and at the prices Dineen are selling the balance of their stock, it will pay anyone to make their purchases now for next season. A little of almost every line is on hand, some of the stock being very costly and stuff that will pay themselves to hold over until next season themselves, were it not for the fact that the lease of their King and Young-streets premises expires on March 1, and a renewal may not be arranged.

Articles that are now being sold at cost are sealskin and Persian lamb, heavy fur-lined jackets, all kinds of furs made up into ruffs, gaiters, caps, muffs, capes, capelines, victorias, etc., men's fur coats, fur-lined coats, ladies' fur-lined wraps and open cloaks, as well as all other garments carried by a well-equipped fur establishment.

Had a Jolly Time.

A and B. Companies of the Royal Grenadier Guards had a big dinner at William's Restaurant last night. About 150 officers and men were present, and after an excellent menu a long toast list was responded to, and songs were sung by many prominent entertainers, Sam Wilson being the favorite. The dinner was a big success.

THE ANNUAL BANQUET.

The annual banquet of the East York Agricultural Association was held in the Franklin House, Markham, last evening. After the election of the officers for the present year, the opportunity was taken to present Mr. W. D. Rossor, the retiring president, with a silver tea and coffee service, and silver. There was a large attendance of members. Mr. William Fleming occupied the chair, and he was supported by County Councillors Hal, Lawer; Messrs. James O'Brien, James Robinson, J. W. (Cousin) Taylor, John Miller, etc. The usual toasts were given, and a very pleasant evening was passed.

MONUMENTS.

See our designs and prices before purchasing elsewhere. We are manufacturers. D. McIntosh & Sons, office and showroom, 524 Yonge-street, opposite McMillan street. Works, Yonge-street, Deer Park.

THE KING OF THE BELGIANS.

King Leopold II. has come to the front again. His name has just appeared as the writer of the letters in possession of the Princess of Chimay, which were seized by the Hungarian police. The King is 61 years of age.

Miss COLUMBIA, with asperity: Waal, Mr. Larry, if you really want to propose, don't you think it'd be a little more delicate too come 'n' do it yourself?

COOK'S TURKISH BATHS, 204 KING W. ST.

Special Excursions. If you wish a nice trip through Europe and the East, our new tourist book, which cannot be equalled. S. J. Sharp, 78 Yonge-street.

THE FAMOUS BOSTONIANS. The engagement of the famous Bostonians, beginning to-night, at the Grand Opera House, has excited more than usual interest among music lovers, and the performance of opera companies, as rendered by this comic opera company, is a fitting climax to the series of musical entertainments recently given here by other organizations. It has been described as "America's greatest light opera company," and its list of singers is the best of the greatest forces on the light opera stage.

Seaside and all unseasonable at the beach is rendered by the use of Adams' Tooth Paste. Allow no imitations to be dished off on you.

Talk to George H. Roberts about Life Insurance—Equitable Life Office, 60 King and Yonge-streets.

The best remedy for toothache—Gibbons' Toothache Lotion. Price 10c.

Offices in the McKinnon building will earn be a scarce article; five fronted last week. Get a move on if you want one.

Cook's Turkish Baths, 204 King W. St., 75c.

The Quebec Fire Assurance Company have taken an office on the ground floor, Jordan-street front, in the McKinnon building, and will move in as soon as the fittings are completed.

Try the Cook-Davis Typewriter Chair. The only speciality Mfg. Co., Ltd., 171 Bay-street.

English collars, 4-ply, 20c. Latest styles. Open to-day. Dress bows 10c. 3 for 25c. Dress shirts 5c. 12 for 50c. King-street west.

Federationhugh & Co., patent solicitors in exports, bank commerce building, Toronto.

Grand & Fay's snuggles. We are dead set against running down our competitors. They are all good people, but we would rather you would come to us for your blank books and stationery. If it is a good thing we have it, Grand & Fay's Stationery and Printers, Wellington and Jordan-streets, Toronto.

It's Grand Coal. If any of our citizens are having dissatisfaction with coal in the way of burning too fast, etc., the trouble will cease by getting the grade of coal imported by John Kent & Co., 78 Yonge-street, near King.

The New Williams sells at par. Splendid office can be rented in the McKinnon building for $10, $12, $15 per month and upwards, heating, caretaking and everything included, except lighting.

General furnishings, Gormally & Somerville, 177 Green St. West, Tel. 5355.

Take View Hotel, Parliament and Winchester, association was held in the Franklin House, Markham, last evening. After the election of the officers for the present year, the opportunity was taken to present Mr. W. D. Rossor, the retiring president, with a silver tea and coffee service, and silver. There was a large attendance of members. Mr. William Fleming occupied the chair, and he was supported by County Councillors Hal, Lawer; Messrs. James O'Brien, James Robinson, J. W. (Cousin) Taylor, John Miller, etc. The usual toasts were given, and a very pleasant evening was passed.

Have you tasted "Salada" Ceylon Tea? Why wear badly fitting shirts, when you can get Treble's perfect-fitting white shirts, 75c. to $2.50 each? Largest stock always at Treble's, 53 King-street west.

Vitality and warmth is imparted to the skin by good soap. To make these use Adams' Tuffi Frosti. See that the trade mark name Tuffi Frosti is on each 2 cent package.

THE PRINCESS OF CHIMAY.

From the latest photograph of the beautiful woman, so well known in Toronto, who has thrown herself to the dogs and created so much talk for European and American society.