The Contest in North Essex.

The contest for the seat in the Legislature vacated by the death of the late Hon. Mr. Balfour, is proceding, with bright prospects for the Liberal candidate, Mr. Auld. The Ministers to Mr. Dryden and Hon. M. Davis. Hon. Mr. Hardy will speak at Amherstburg on Tuesday evening, and at Leamington on Wednesday evening. Hon. Mr. Davis is to deliver an address at Comber on Monday evening and at Kingsville on Tuesday afternoon at the nomination. Hon. Mr. Dryden will speak at Tilbury on Wednesday evening, Essex Center on Thursday evening, and Kingsville on Friday evening.

The Election Protests.

It was reported by the Conservative newspapers yesterday that arrangements were being made to "saw off" all the election petitions in this and other Provinces.

The Liberal leaders at Ottawa, who were stated to be willing to agree to such a compromise, deny the truth of the report. No such proposal has been made, or will be entertained.

The trial of the election protests in this city and other constituencies will be proceeded with in the latter part of November or beginning of Decem-

There are no protests against Liberal members in Ontario, and it is said that a number of Conservative M.P.s, who were elected by corrupt means, will confess judgment, and try to prevent an exposure.

Some of the Conservative members, whose seats are attacked, are moving heaven and earth to avoid going to trial. In Winnipeg, for example, many technical objections were raised to the petition against Hugh John Macdonald, but the court refuses to sustain them. Similar objections were raised by Mr. Boyd. Conservative M. P. for Marquette, Man., and thrown out, and now Mr. Boyd is trying to postpone the day when he must go by asking for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court.

Why not face an investigation on its merits?
