Tubercle Bacilli. Laymen generally imagine that tuberculosis (consumption) does not occur in persons who are stout or overweight.
Of course, that is a mistake, for consumption often occurs in persons who are normal or above normal in weight.
The second popular misconception

As a matter of fact there is no ground whatever for such a notion. The comparative number of the germs found parative number of the germs found at any particular examination is entirely a matter of accident. The point is that if any tubercle bacilli at all are found, no matter how few or how many, that signifies an active and well established tuberculosis. If no germs mission of a current of air from out-doors, and how that can be accom-plished without a draft is one of those questions that can't be answered. are found, that does not signify that the patient has no tuberculosis, for in some cases of advanced lung tuberculosis it may require a long series of You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a 16-oz, bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, this mixture saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. Club News Hornet Sting Caused Hives.

My little boy, aged 12, was stung behind the left ear, on the temple and left hand by hornets. I applied vinegar and common baking soda. In about half an hour he complained of difficulty in speaking and tightness in his chest, and immediately afterward an eruption came out all over his body resembling the welts of fiea bites, with great litching. the welts of flea bites, with great itching. The rash was out all day. Next morning he was all right and the rash had gone. Please tell me whether it was poisoning from the sting or whether my treatment was responsible in any way. (Mrs. M. L. W.)

ANSWER—Apparently an attack of hives induced by the foreign protein injected by the hornets. Your treatment was all right. Hives is generally caused by the entrance into the system of some foreign protein (a nitrogenous substance) which has not undergone normal digestion.

ANSWER—Olive oil is a food. If it does not disturb your digestion or prove too laxative it can do no harm.

Almanac Trouble.

My mother has had trouble with uric acid for years. Do any of the following foods contain or produce uric acid: Chicken, parsley, carrots, leeks, parsnips, turnips, onions, farina, sugar, cooked apple, orange, lemon, grapefruit, pears, honey, garlic? (A. R.)

ANSWER—Chicken contains uric acid: Bread, cereals, most fruits, nuts, tomatoes, cabbage, onions, cucumbers, turnips, milk, cream, butter, eggs, certain cheeses (Edam, Swiss, Roquefort, Gervais). It is doubtful whether it is worth while to attempt to regulate diet to exclude uric-acid-forming material.

TALBOT STREET TEACHER RESIGNS AFTER THIRTY-ONE YEARS

One of Best Teachers London Has Ever Had and a Loss To City. Had and a Loss To City.

Miss Linch, who for the past thirtyone and half years has been teaching in the Talbot street school of this city, recently handed her resignation to the board of education, and has gone south to spend the winter with her sister in Lexington, Kentucky.

According to those who have worked with her as teachers, and to the many hundreds of pupils who have gone forth from the doors of her schoolroom, Miss Linch was one of the best teachers in the city, and her leaving is a great loss to the school. On her departure from the school the teachers presented her with a beautiful set of sterling silver teaspoons.

Bread crumbs should be a regular part of the household supplies, to be used as scallops, fish balls, meat balls, or anything fried in deep fat. Bread to be crumbed should be thoroughly dried in the oven and rolled or ground fine. It is a good plan then to sift the crumbs, using the finest for rissoles, the rest for bread pudding and on casserole dishes.

The loss of one slice a day means a deal of waste in a year. The best way to realize it is to do a little sum—one ounce a day means 23 pounds a year. That 23 pounds would give a start on the second year.

CORINNE.

(Copyright, 1920, by the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Corinne has been in vogue in America for so many years that her distinguished French origin has almost been forgotten. Seldom does a deliberately foreign name receive such welcome or such permanent popularity. The Greek is responsible for the earliest source of Corinne, the name coming probably from Persephone's title Kore, a maiden, which was applied to the Boetian poetess, who won a wreath of victory at Thebes.

But unlike many of the ancient favorites connected with the brightest lights of the old world, this name persisted, and when ambitious writers, easer for a new name for a favorite, delved into early history. Corinna was salvaged and put into current use. Mme. de Stael created the brilliant Corinne, heroine of the novel of that name, and insured her immortality. French damsels beyond number adopted the name, while in Italy Corinna appeared in an early chronicle of the Middle Ages, relating to the story of the lady best known as Rowena, daughter of Henghist. ghist.
