The Lord Provost of Glasgow in the course of an address on the progress of the temperance question in Scotland before the Scotlish Temperance League, said, "The nation at large is beginning to feel that there is wisdom in our folly, sober sense in our fanaticism; and although by many our safe and simple remedy for the evil is—owing to prejudice, fashion, the evil itself is recognized and deployed, and every one, from the highplored, and every one, from the high-est vatesman to the humblest work-ing-class politician, readily admits

Claimed that colored pictures were obtained, the colors themselves were said to be fugitive. A report now comes from Munich, Bavaria, that which is sensitive to yellow rays only; the negative of this is printed by photolithography in yellow ink. The second photograph is from a plate only sensi-tive to blue rays, and the printing from this is with blue ink, overlaying the first printing. The third photograph is of red, and the proceedings are similar with red ink. The colors thus blended in printing are said to give the natural tints. It is possible that success may ultimately attend experi-ments of this character, but it seems highly improbable that plates can be Picton. prepared which will only photograph red, yellow or blue separately.

thodist Church. He enjoys more than a Provincial reputation as an orator, and will lend dignity and prestige to his new position. As a student, he excelled in classics. His later reading and study, judging from his public efforts, have been of a broad and liberal kind. His election, we believe, will be exceedingly popular with the Alumni of the Institution. We heartily congratulate Mr. Sprague on his election, and the Board of Governors on the choice they have made.—

MR. J. H. Robinson.
Dear Sir: In reply to your letter of enquiry, I would say that your "Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacto-phosphate of Lime," is the best preparation of the kind I have ever seen or taken.

I was ordered by my physician to take it and commenced about the last of August and since that time I have felt like a differently, and all for the better, as the doctor can testify.
