Spring. APRIL begins on Wednesday.

The husbandman seizing his plough,
Walks round in the pride of his might ;
The drops of his masculine brow
Fall freely as dews of the night.
His home is the centre of rest,
His heart is the birth-place of joy ;
All creatures around him are blest
And praise is their sweetest employ.
And evening so calmly serene,
Like age in a holy decline,
Seems longing and lingering between
Two regions, with fervour divine.

Full Moon 19th d. 2h 8m morn. | Last Quar. 26th d. 10h 41m eve.

DM	Holidays, Weather, &c.	FARMER'S CALENDAR.
1	Tides rise. grows much	It is now time that farmers pay particular attention to all that is connected with their occupation. "He who trusts to chance for a crop, deserves none, and he generally has what he deserves." He that is negligent and sluggish in this month will be generally so throughout the year, and perhaps all his life time ; and a shabby farm is portentous of neglected morals, and inclination to idleness, tippling, and litigation. Come then, let us be busy with the plough that the earth may be thoroughly stirred. No matter how much your ground is tilled with this instrument, more especially if your manure should be short. House your sleighs and sleds, unless you prefer (as some do) to let them take the benefit of the sun and rain through the season. If your spring grain is not all sown, lose no time in getting it into the ground.
