BOSTON BOUTS

Of the Smith-McCarthy bout the Boston Globe says:—Gumboil Smith was given the decision over Tom McCarthy of Montana in their 12-round bout at the Atlas A. A. last night...

McCarthy is a willing boxer but did not have the steam behind his punches. In every round save two, he was the aggressor...

Smith tried to win in the next session and landed some stiff punches, but McCarthy hid out.

Although Smith has done considerable boxing since he was last seen here he did not show last night that he had improved to any extent.

When it was announced that Percy Flynn challenged the winner there was a laugh. Some one in the crowd asked "Where is Sandy Ferguson?"

The manager of Smith declared he was ready to match him against Langford. Gilbert Gallant and Freddie Welsh will box in the feature bout at the club on next Tuesday night.

A Featherweight Challenge. Harry Harley, a clever local boxer, is anxious to box any featherweight in the maritime provinces...

"Home Run" Baker At It. Chester, Penn., April 21.—Franklin Baker, home-run monarch, has backed to the call of baseball. From authentic sources it was learned yesterday that he will cover third base for the Upland team of the Delaware County League.

Further honors have come to Baker. It is said that he has been made captain of the Upland team. Baker will play on Saturday afternoons and holidays. The balance of the time he will devote to his farm at Trappe, Md.

Will Hold Mail. New York, April 21.—Capt. Huston, one of the Yankee owners, while admitting that the club still is ready to pay $25,000 for the release of Home Run Baker, declared that Fritz Maitel would not be allowed to go to the Athletics in order to put through the big deal, which may be arranged in the near future.

"Mack can have $20,000 for Baker as soon as he says the word," said the captain. It would be a mistake to let Maitel get away.

It is not strange that the Athletics are not drawing large crowds at home. The sale of Eddie Collins and Baker's strike for more pay have made the once rabid supporters of the Mackmen lose interest.

Diamond Sparkies. Eddie Fitzpatrick, who is substiting for Bevers at second base for the Boston Braves, is going well.

Jack Dambert, leading hitter of the National League last season, played his first game for Brooklyn this week. He had three hits in five times up.

Is the emery ball in use again? Manager Griffith has five roughened balls which Fitcher Shore of the Red Sox used against his team. Evans, the umpire suggested that the balls might have come in contact with the concrete stands.

Griffith doesn't think five would be affected that way, and will send the scared spheres to Ben Johnson.

WRESTLING. McDonald in Amherst. Dan McDonald and Mike Hackenschmidt have gone to Amherst, where other wrestlers are having matches.

After inserting tape in petticoats or blouses always lack the tape in the center of the back or front, according to the way in which the garment slips, prevent the ends of the tape from slipping back into the casing out of reach.

Misunderstood. Ship's Officer—"Oh, there goes eight bells; excuse me, it's my watch below." Old Lady—"Gracious, fancy your watch striking as loud as that?"

They Had to Be. Maud—"Don't you think there are just as good folk in the sea as ever were caught?" Marie—"I don't know. But they are smarter, anyway."

AMUSEMENTS. Leave it to Sanford Quest Expert Gynecologist

A subscriber to the Montreal Journal of Commerce sends us the following puzzle:—I married a widow, who had a daughter. My father got in love with my step-daughter and married her. In this way my father became my son-in-law and my step-son, and my step-daughter became my step-mother, because she was the wife of my father.

From the marriage with my wife I had a son, that is my father's brother-in-law and my uncle at the same time, because he is my step-mother's brother.

From his marriage to my step-daughter, my father had also a son. He was my brother and my nephew at the same time, being the son of my step-daughter.

In this way my wife became my grandmother, being the mother of my step-mother, and I became the husband and the nephew of my wife. As the husband of the grandmother is the grandfather, in this way I became the grandfather of myself.

Please do not get confused about it, follow it and see whether I am right or not.

The late Paul Lawrence Dunbar used to like to joke about the higher education of women.

In one of his lectures delivered late in June, Mr. Dunbar said: "A lady, on a sultry afternoon, called on some friends. The talk buzzed along briskly, fans waved, and the daughter of the house kept twitching uncomfortably, frowning, and making little smoothed exclamations of annoyance. Finally, with an impatient sigh, she rose and left the room."

"Your daughter," said the visitor, "seems to be suffering from the heat."

"No," said the hostess. "She is just back from college and she is suffering from the family grammar."

AMUSEMENTS. THE CO-OPERATIVE MOTION PICTURE HOUSES. EMPRESS. A Splendid FIVE REEL. Delineation of Russian Court Life "MY OFFICIAL WIFE"

In this fascinating presentation of "My Official Wife" James Young has glorified and beautified all he has portrayed, has given dignity to melodrama through some remarkable characterizations, and has proved beyond the shadow of a doubt that the screen story can be made far more effective than could print or spoken drama.

It is a story of Russian court life and the Nihilist. Some of the most remarkable and thrilling scenes ever taken, backed by a powerful and intense story, a story that will grip and hold the most distracted person, a cast of star players whose salaries amounted to a small fortune for this production alone including Clara Kimball Young, Helen Connelly, Earl Williams, Harry Morey, L. Rogers Lytton, Rose Tapley and a host of others. This film should be seen by all. It stands alone a master of masterpieces.

Prices as Usual Doors Open 6.30, Commence 7 Sat. Mat. at 2

Friday and Saturday's Program is a Carlier STAR. A Special Gift For The Ladies Sat. Mat.

Two Reels "From Out Of The Flood" Lushia Feature. A feature that will astonish you with its spectacular and stirring effects. The most wonderful flood scenes, showing a whole city flooded and the players working through it all, it seems too real to be a photographic reproduction. Its story is gripping and powerful with intense dramatic situations and exciting and thrilling scenes.

"BRONCHO BILLY'S JEALOUSY" "HAM, THE PIANO MOVER" The first of the Ham comedies to be shown in the city, featuring the new comedian Lloyd V. Hamilton and Bud Duncan. Pretty Ruth Roland is also in the cast. It sure is funny.

Featuring the Cozy Picture House GAIETY. Has Splendid Week-End Program.

The Second Installment Of "RUNAWAY JUNE" Watch the man with the "Black Vandyke". You'll surely find him interesting. His wife, too, has put in an appearance and becomes implicated in the plot; also a young woman of the questionable type, who gains prominence at a party given by Blye in the ballroom at Rector's. The costumes and settings in this two-reel chapter are certainly stunning.

"SHEP, THE SENTINEL" Another of those remarkable films featuring Shep, the dog that is almost human. The clever work he does in this picture is truly marvelous.

"A HALTED CAREER" This is a rip-roaring riot of a comedy from the Keystone fun factory. See it sure.
