

BOYS CAMPAIGN IN MOCK ELECTION

Election proceedings at the Y. M. C. A. are very exciting. Placards are all about proclaiming the platform of the various candidates for the Boys' City Council, who will stand election on Saturday. There were several speeches given Tuesday and yesterday by aspirants to the mayoralty and commissionships. Ronald Brown and Murray Sargent, each striving to be mayor, presented their platforms which were respectively: Bigger and better times for all and leadership by the boys for the boys. They made good points and were heartily applauded or heckled as occasion demanded. Henry Humphrey has taken a popular theme for his platform, which wins the favor of all who know what "No more hot ovens for late comers in gym classes" means. William Sargent is conservative and talks about good fellowship. Robert Bishop is with would-be Mayor Brown, and has no special policy. Morely Ewing is without a policy, choosing to wait the course of events rather than to make rash promises. Other candidates will speak today.

BODY 50 YEARS IN SALT MINE, FOUND PETRIIFIED

Bucharest, Dec. 6.—The petrified body of a miner which has just been discovered in the Aknufugating salt mine is believed by doctors to have lain there for at least 50 years. A mine lamp found hanging from the cap of the miner was of such an old type that even the oldest living miners have never seen one like it.

ENJOYED WHIST

The usual weekly gathering of the Last Car Club was held on Tuesday evening. The hosts were Mr. Angel and Mr. Olton. Members and friends enjoyed five games of whist. After the fourth game refreshments were served. The prize winners were Mrs. Reed and Leslie Caddell. Consolations went to Mrs. McClean and S. Caddell. Two new members have recently joined the club and were given a hearty welcome. Instrumental selections and songs were enjoyed after the games had been played. A pleasant evening closed with the singing of Auld Lang Syne.
