ROBBERS CROSS
"DEAD LINE" IN
DARING THEFTS

New York, March 12.—Three hold robberies were reported to the police today—one of them below the traditional "dead line for crooks," at the upper end of the financial district—had resulted tonight in the arrest of but one man.

The robberies included theft of $25,000 in small bills from the Cosmopolitan Bank, a Bronx institution, the theft of nearly $4,000 worth of jewelry from a messenger boy who was making deliveries in the financial district, and theft of $800 from a young woman depositor in the Public National Bank in Upper Broadway.

The man arrested gave the name of Morris Gowers. He was charged with robbing Sarah Blinsky in the Public National Bank. He was captured after a chase. When he was arraigned, Gowers said that he was a Cornell graduate and a writer by occupation. He waived examination, asserting: "I accuse the social system of driving me into this adversity."

Mayor Hayes received a letter yesterday from Hon. F. B. Carroll, on the proposal of taking over the harbor. It is expected that Hon. Mr. Carroll will be in the city the last of the week to confer with the city officials.

We Are Not Price Cutters

Our object is not to quote our prices below cost on some lines and make up on others; but our motto is:

A Square Deal and a Low Price

GUINEA-PIGS FOR FOOD.

Now that rabbits are both scarce and dear, people might well turn their attention to guinea-pigs rearing for food. Guineapigs is the guinea-pig's outstanding vice. They are perfect little demons for lighting, and as they have sharp, cutting teeth, they frequently do a lot of damage to one another in a surprisingly short interval of time—Pearson's Weekly.

Stuart-Stephenson.

At the home of John Stephenson, Golden Grove, yesterday afternoon, Rev. H. C. Fraser, pastor of Knox church, united in marriage Edgar Stuart of Scotch Settlement, Westmorland county, and Miss Isabella Stephenson of Golden Grove. They will reside in Scotch Settlement, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.
