Braves Defeat Pirates.
The Braves made a name for themselves last night on the South End diamond, when they defeated the Pirates by a score of 6 to 5. There was a large gathering of fans to witness the contest and every one was well satisfied with the work of the teams and count the game the best of the season. The Pirates have an easy lead in the South End League, but the Braves have reorganized their team and the shake-up has proved highly successful, as shown by last night's game. There was good pitching done by both men and many skillful catches were featured by both teams. The pitchers walked only one man each. Sealey and L. Kerr for the Pirates each made a two base hit.

The line-up was:
Braves. Catcher. Pirates.
King. Pitcher. Cox
Johnston. P. R. Kerr
O'Neill. Second base. McGowan
Rowe. Third base. Ryan
Foster. Short stop. Sealey
Fraser. Left field. L. Kerr
Barnes. Centre field. Harrington
Shaw. Right field. M. McGowan
Garland. Banbury

To Suppress Gambling.
Chicago, July 12.—Four baseball enthusiasts were docketed for trial today in police court on charges of gambling at White Sox Park during the recent series between Chicago and Philadelphia.

Acting on a request of the White Sox management, detectives have been sitting in the bleachers at the ball park for the purpose of putting a stop to gambling on the games. The four men arrested, it is alleged, were betting on the game and giving odds of four to three with the White Sox favorite. Fifty dollars of their money was confiscated by the officers.

Reds After Honus Wagner.
The Cincinnati Reds are reported to be after the services of Honus Wagner, veteran Pittsburgh shortstop, whose retirement from active participation in the sport robbed baseball of one of its oldest and most popular idols. Pat Moran is said to have made the veteran Honus a flattering offer to come out of retirement and finish the season with the Reds. Wagner is understood to be considering the offer.

East End League.
In the East End League last evening the Alerts defeated the Cotton Mills, 10 to 1. A large number of people witnessed the contest. The battery for the winners was McEachern and Callahan, and for the losers Brogan, Gillespie and Brokens.

The captain of the Evening Times baseball team was this morning persuaded to divulge the array of strength and skill which he was to place opposite the customs house aggregation on Wednesday evening and he came forward with the following which he wished the sporting editor to understand was not necessarily the line-up which he proposed to use on the evening of Wednesday. The word he used was "tentative" whatever that means. However, here they are, everyone a winner: Bartlett, c; McEachern, p. (he's the captain and he's been ploughing holes in the air on the east end diamond for the last two weeks); Smith, 1b; Wilkinson, 2b; Thomson, 3b; Sage, ss; Knodell, cf; Maxwell, rf; Osborne, lf. Among the pinch hitters and those who will look after the bats and water pails will be Jim Dever, Fairweather, Mantle, McCoy and a few others whose names are being kept dark just now. The game looks like the event of the season and it is expected that the commissioner of ferries will be asked to put on both ferry steamers on the night of the game in order to accommodate the crowds.

THE RIFLE.
Canadian Wins at Bisle.
Captain Martin of Calgary won the Daily Graphic cup yesterday after shooting off with Captain MacKenzie of the Black Watch. The winner made two bulls-eyes and an inner, and the loser one magpie and two inners.

GOLF.
Maritime Championships Are On.
The qualifying round, of thirty six holes for the championships, will be played today in Truro. There are fifty-six entries. Those representing the St. John Golf Club are: Mr. Peters, Mr. Foster, E. C. Pheasant, Mr. Barnes, Mr. Keator. On Wednesday morning the first round for their drives on the fifth hole on opposite sides of a circus ring, with the prospect of a high pitch shot facing both club members. Each player thought he was back and they played their shots simultaneously. Both shots were over-ruled, but the balls met in mid-air, directly over the cup, both balls falling dead for three on a par four hole. Several players saw the incident.

THE TURF.
Big Decline in Racing.
The decline in English racing is impressively illustrated with some statistics recently disclosed by England's racing officials. Last year 864 stake races were decided throughout the British Empire, for an aggregate value of $787,681. In the pre-war time of 1913 a total of $2,038,365 was distributed to stake winners. Altogether 2,214 horses ran last year on the flat, against 4,050 in 1913.

WRESTLING.
Zyzyzko Gets Match.
Wladex Zyzyzko, Polish wrestler, will be a contestant in a finish match at catch-as-catch-can style to be promoted at Hartford, Conn., next Saturday. Zyzyzko's opponent has not yet been selected, but the choice lies between John Olin and Peter Padonow, a Russian grappler standing 6 feet 2 inches, and weighing 232 pounds. Padonow has been in this country about one year.

AQUATIC.
Hawaiian Girl a Good Swimmer.
Hawaii has a woman's swimming star who promises to rival in ability the famous Duke P. Kahanamoku. She is Edith Kenna, a Honolulu girl of fourteen years, who was until very recently practically unknown. In a five-day swim under the auspices of the Hawaii A. A. U. Miss Kenna covered the distance in 82-5 seconds, making better time for the distance than women swimmers at the same meet. This, with several other meritorious performances, caused Hawaii's swimming authorities to stamp Miss Kenna as a prospective champion. She is being coached by Harry Clifton of the Hui Mahani Club, who developed many capable swimmers.

RING.
A Hard Bout.
Philadelphia, July 14.—Lew Tindler of Philadelphia, defeated Joe Welling of Chicago, in a hard six round fight at Shibe Park tonight. Tindler's punches were cleaner and harder. Welling was bleeding from a cut under his eye at the finish.

Joe Tipton of Philadelphia knocked out George Chaney of Baltimore in the third round with a right hand uppercut to the jaw. It was the second time in the season that Chaney has been knocked out in this city. Lew Tindler having sent him down for the count early last month.

Ted (Kid) Lewis, former welterweight champion, had the better of a six round bout with Steve Latzen of Hamilton, Pa. Lewis was knocked down twice in the first round, but he weathered Latzen's attack and came back strong.

Harry Greb of Pittsburgh and Battling Levinsky of Philadelphia, fought a six round draw. Eddie Moy of Allentown, out fought Harry Pearce of Brooklyn in the opening bout.

Get Old Too Soon.
The New York Times says: "Biologists of boxing as a form of exercise and a means of physical development will not be heard with much patience if the current suggestion that nobody who has reached the age of 35 shall be allowed either to defend the champion's title or to seek to win it should be accepted and acted on. The sorry spectacle which Dempsey indicates that the suggestion is a wise one, and there are other well-known instances when the application of such a rule would have prevented similar displays, but a form of athletics that wears a man out before he has attained more than middle age is not to be commended or very easily defended."

"There is of course a difference in reality as well as in theory, between boxing and prizefighting—a difference that persists in spite of the fact that some prizefights are called boxing matches, and are allowed to pass for such even in States where truth is as fervently worshipped as it is in Ohio. Perhaps it is only prizefighting for matter of 35 are incompetent, no matter how sober the lives or how well they take care of themselves."

"In that case, however, it is evident that prizefighting is injurious in a permanent way, even to young men, and should be prohibited for them as well as for their elders by a few years. It is not desirable that fists should earn in a few minutes more than the majority even of good brains earn in a lifetime."

WALTER JOHNSON HAS FIVE SHUTOUTS TO HIS CREDIT
Washington Pitcher Leads American League in Blanking Opposing Clubs

are crowding Johnson for the lead, each having four shutouts to his credit at the present time. Next in line comes Bob Shawkey of the Yankees, Stanley Coveleski of the Indians, and Eddie Cicotte of the White Sox, each of whom has blanked an opposing team on three different occasions. The Yankees lead other teams with ten shutout victories, and Quinn is the only pitcher who has blanked four different clubs.

A total of forty-eight shutout performances have been turned in to date by American League boxmen. Connie Mack's Athletics, as might be expected, have been most afflicted by run famines, and have taken the whitewash on ten occasions. The Senators have had the runless experience nine times, and the Yankees eight. It is an odd feature that shutouts have been far more frequent against eastern clubs than against westerners. Jimmy Burke's St. Louis Browns have been the most successful in escaping the kalamine, having suffered only twice this season. Morton of the Indians and Ehmke of the Tigers are the pitchers who enjoy the distinction of having blanked the Browns. The Tigers have been almost as successful, having only three shutouts up to the present time, two of these by Yankee pitchers.

Some of the more prominent pitchers of the American League have yet to register a shutout, though the season has about reached the halfway mark in the list of pitchers appended below one looks in vain for the names of Harper, Perry, Bagby, Ruth, and Faber. Perry has blanked out the whitewash beyond the nine innings, yet failed to win a shutout victory. He blanked the Senators for two frames on the day the season opened, but was scored on and defeated in the thirteenth, as Johnson also was using the whitewash brush.

Barnes, Causey, and Benton Have Pitched in 30 Victories Against Only 12 Defeats is being played on the Truro links, is creating interest. The St. John Club has five representatives there and it is expected that they will make a good showing.

The New York Giants are back in the lead for the championship of the National League. It seems to be a case of "in again, out again," with Cincinnati on the other end. The Cubs are slowly but surely creeping up and will be strong contenders for leadership.

In the American League, Chicago continues to lead and also gain on the New York Yankees. They are not meeting as strong opposition as the Yankees, but will have the same route to travel a little later on. The New York players have fallen off in their hitting and are not giving their pitchers a chance.

In the International League Baltimore and Toronto continue to win. The latter team has taken a crimp out of Newark's championship aspirations.

row of the pennant race thus far this season. The terrific batting of Young, Kauff and Burns, especially has been a big aid to the team in the flag fight. Young and Kauff are among the first five batsmen of the league and Burns is close behind them. Doyle has also been playing a strong game both at the bat and in the field. The problem which McGraw has on his hands is that if these heavy hitters should fall off to any great extent, the extra burden which would be thrown on the pitching staff would be so great that it is doubtful if the fingers could stand the pressure.

Between them Barnes, Causey and Benton have pitched no less than 42 of the 66 games which the Giants had played up to Saturday. They have stood up well under the brunt of the work, and Friday's game against St. Louis showed that Barnes, who has pitched 16 games this season, has not suffered from the extra work. Of these games Barnes has won 12 and lost 4, Causey has won 9 and lost 3, while Benton has won 9 and lost 5.

To these three pitchers goes the credit of keeping New York in the pennant race in the position in the race. That these three boxmen could keep up their work and
