Move Acids, Gases and Clogged Waste from Liver and Bowels

Get a 10-cent box now.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING AT BORDER

(St. Croix, Courier.)

Trinity church was the scene of a happy event, last evening, in which the younger portion of society was particularly interested, the bride being one of our most esteemed and most popular young ladies, Miss Helen Gertrude Ryder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ryder, and the groom Leslie Gower Mackay, a prominent young business man of Sydney, Cape Breton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Craig W. Nichols, recently rector of the parish, and now of Westfield. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Franklin M. Eaton.

The groom entered the church attended by W. C. Murray, of Halifax. The bride followed with her brother, Charles Ryder, and attended by her bridesmaid, Miss Gladys Blair.

The bride was very charming in a gown of ivory duchess satin, and was trimmed with Carickmacross lace and seed pearls, and falling over the costume from a wreath of orange blossoms was a veil of tulle arranged in Juliette style. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern.

Miss Blair, the bridesmaid, looked very attractive in a dainty gown of pale pink silk with overtones of pink embroidered chiffon. She wore a picture hat of black velvet with a handsome aigrette of white and pink feathers. The Taft roses tied with long ends of pink ribbon.

The church was prettily adorned with flowers for the occasion, and during the ceremony the bridal party stood under an arch of flowers. The ushers were W. L. Agar, Lewis Mills, Howard Murchie and James W. Douglas.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The drawing room and halls were filled with golden glow, sweet peas, and ferns. The bride and groom stood under a wedding bell of white flowers to receive the congratulations of the guests.

The dining room was artistically decorated with pink sweet peas and asparagus fern, and the table had decorations of pink sweet peas and pink satin ribbon from each corner of the table. The electrolier, where the ribbon was massed with ferns in a large graceful bowknot.

The happy couple left immediately after the reception for their future home in Sydney, travelling part of the way in an automobile. The bride's finger away gown was navy blue serge. Her hat was black blue, with touches of copper color.

The wedding gifts were very beautiful and were of cut glass, silver and bric-a-brac of a great variety. The Sunday school scholars and congregation of Trinity church presented her with a handsome silver candlestick, and a dozen silver spoons in gratitude for the interest and work she gave the school for several years.

The young ladies who helped to serve the guests at the reception were Marion Murray, Louise Purves, Addie McVay, Grace Maxwell and Lelia McVay.

There were many handsome gowns worn. Mrs. Ryder, mother of the bride, wore a gown of amethyst colored charmeuse with trimmings of rose point lace, toque of amethyst velvet with white osprey. Mrs. James Mitchell, aunt

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. ## DENVER BACKS THE JUDGE

(Woman's Journal.)

Rev. Mr. Berle says nobody really wants Lindsay for Judge of the Juvenile Court. Considering that he has been elected to that position six times, in the teeth of the most violent opposition, and has run ahead of his flock, it looks as if a few people wanted him. Dr. Berle's explanation—that they vote for him because they think it would discredit Colorado in public opinion if he were defeated—is hardly convincing. The most impassioned appeals were made to the voters to defeat him on the express ground that he had discredited Colorado in public opinion by his revelations in "The Best and the Jungle." The voters answered by sending him back with an increased majority.

The Denver papers are taking much less notice of this attack on Judge Lindsay than the eastern papers. When we remember the pluck he showed in bucking the great corrupt corporations of Denver; when we recall the repeated efforts they have made since then to ruin him, and the long series of trumped-up charges they have brought against him, we may be reasonably sure that this latest accusation belongs to the same brood. Let all who can possibly do so go to the meeting and hear Judge Lindsay speak for himself. A. S. B.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP--25 CENT DANDERINE

Girls! Girls! Save Your Hair! Make it Grow Luxuriant and Beautiful

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a few-erishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?
