

11. The teachers are required to practise such discipline in the schools as would be exercised by a kind and judicious parent; and shall avoid corporal punishment in all cases where good order can be preserved by milder measures. The teacher will be held responsible for the due exercise of his or her discretionary power.

12. For violent or pointed opposition to the teacher's authority, a principal teacher may suspend a child from attendance at school, immediately informing the parent of the measure, and reporting the case to the Superintendent for his instructions.

13. When the disobedience of any pupil becomes habitual and hopeless of reformation, and his example injurious to the school, it shall be the duty of the principal teacher to report the case to the Superintendent, who may suspend and ultimately expel the pupil from the schools, such act being subject to an appeal to the Board of Trustees; but any child thus expelled, who shall, in the presence of the school, ask forgiveness for his or her fault, and shall promise amendment, may, with the sanction of the Superintendent, be reinstated in the privileges of the school.

14. When any teacher is compelled by sickness or other cause, to be absent from school, the principal of the department shall make temporary provision for the care of the classes, recording the case, and promptly reporting it to the Superintendent; and the appointment of a substitute shall devolve upon the Superintendent; and one-half of the substitute's remuneration shall be deducted from the salary of the teacher, by the authority of the Board.

15. No teachers shall award medals, or other prizes, to the pupils under their charge.

16. No subscription or contribution for any purpose whatever shall be introduced into any school.

17. No addresses shall be presented by the pupils to any teacher, or other school-officers or authorities, and no uses other than those connected with the regular exercises of the schools, shall be made of the school-houses. Principal teachers are especially instructed to prevent the announcement in their respective schools of any public
