

SOCIETIES.

I. STUDENTS' MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

All Students are expected to be connected with the Society which meets weekly for prayer, general business, and conference on Home and Foreign Mission matters. It directs the efforts of Students in the city and vicinity, and employs during College recess, seven missionaries. Its income is derived from Students and their friends. The members of the Society preach, distribute tracts, visit among the destitute, the neglected, and in the Hospital, conduct prayer meetings, and take part in the exercises of Bible Classes and Sabbath Schools, while at the same time they have ample opportunities for observation of pastoral life and of becoming practically acquainted with the best methods of Christian work as carried on in large and active congregations.

II. PHILOSOPHICAL AND LITERARY SOCIETY.

This Society has for its object the cultivation of the Reasoning faculty, Literary taste and Rhetorical powers of its members, by means of fortnightly meetings for Discussion, Readings, the delivery of Essays, &c.

The Senate offers annually the following prizes, which are awarded by the vote of the Society:—

DEVOTIONAL MEETINGS.

I. THE WEEKLY LECTURE.

For the purpose of cultivating the interest of Professors and Students in one another and in their respective work, of fostering a devotional spirit, and of dealing with such matters of Christian and ministerial duty as do not come within the ordinary range of College prelections, an hour is set apart in the afternoon of each Monday during the session, the exercises of which are presided over by the Professors in rotation, when all Students, theological and literary, are expected to be present.

II. STUDENTS' PRAYER MEETING.

This meeting, of a purely devotional character, is held every week at an hour fixed at the commencement of the session, the exercises being conducted by the students in rotation.
