

The Treasurer's statement showed that the total receipts for the past year were $12,402.54 and the total expenditure $12,129.49, leaving a balance on hand of $273.05. The report of the medical staff stated that at present the health of the inmates was good. It also spoke of the treatment of those cases of sickness which had arisen, and expressed a deep feeling of regret at the untimely death of Dr. John McConnell, a warm friend of the home. It spoke of the efficient manner in which the home is managed under its present officers.

The most pleasant feature of the afternoon was the presentation of an illuminated address to Miss Wheelwright, the retiring Matron of the home. It was read by Mrs. Leigh, the very kindly and efficient Secretary, and presented in a handsome oak frame.

A second address was also presented, accompanied by a silver teapot and fruit spoon, from the members of the staff.

Rev. Canon Cayley replied in a few brief remarks on behalf of Miss Wheelwright.

At the close of the proceedings refreshments were served and an inspection of the building made by those present.
