Many imagine all advertised medicines to be worthless nostrums, and indescriminately condemn them; but is it not an injustice to the thousands of respectable citizens who give voluntary evidence of benefits received, to thus question and danbt their veracity and interrity? Fairbank's standard scales are extensively advertised. Does it necessarily follow that they are inferior in make, and less accurate than others? Have they not been demonstrated to be among the best? Again, is it common serse to suppose that a physician with capital could be induced to hazard it and a hard earned reputation upon a worthles article?

There is nothing so dear as cheap medicine it is dear at any price. This is true of the large packs of condition powders now sold. Buy Sheridan's Cavelry Condition Powders and you can't make a mistake. The large packs are utterly worthless.

THE ORIECT OF OUR ESTABLISHMENT.

OUR Newspaper Advertising Bureau, No. 10
Spruce street, New York, is an establishment intended to facilitate the convenient and systematic placing of advertisements in newspapers. It is conducted upon the principles which we conceive to be the right once for securing the best results to the advertiser, the publisher, and ourselves.

We undertake to represent American newspapers, not only the newspapers of the city of New Y rk and of all other American cities, religious, agricultural and other class newspapers, but also the small country journals. We receive regularly and keep on file the newspapers of every description throughout the land, whether issued daily, weekly or mouthly-Confined Structure or Newspapers of every description throughout the land, whether issued daily, weekly or mouthly-Confined Structure or Newspapers and Newspapers.

AND TO AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS.

We confine our transactions to newspapers and do not accept or undertake the management of other classes of advertising, such as books, sign boards, posters, or job printing.

It is our hope that by adhering toone branch of advertising we may make our-elves masters of it.

We also restrict our dealings to newspapers publi hed within the geographical limits the United States and Dominion of Canada.

We undertake to maiutain at ea ablished credit with every newspaper, and to have at hand a schedule of the charges adopted by the publisher of each for advertising space in its columns; to be able to quote those rates to an advertiser who wishes to insert an advertisement in one or several, and to procure the prompt insertion of the advertisement without any extra charge for the service rendered, which service consists of quoting the propertiting or writing as many duplicates of the advertisement as may be required to furnish one to each paper to be used, forwarding the copy for insertion at our own expense for postage or measenger sevice, examining the papers to see that the advertisement appears when an in a manner that it ought to, checking each subsequent issue of the advertisement, and have a subject to the inspection of the advertiser, and marking plantly in each paper the advertiser comes (or eachs) for the purpose of having the files examined (to see that the service for which his money pays has been actually rendered), the eye may light promptly upon his announcement, without the labor of searching a whole paper or page.

If errors or omissions occur, it is our duty to notify publishers, at our own expense for labor, postage or messenger, and to see to it that the publisher of the paper actually does the specified service for which the advertiser contracted.

their heads. This is called the marriage crown. He places a wax taper into each of their hands, and reads a portion of Scripture; a sweet and bitter drink, emblematical of the joys and sorrows of married life, is given to each. The whole service lasts about an hour, and ends by the bride and groom, with all the spectators, following the priest around the altar three times. The ceremony is very impressive. When a Russian merchant gives a dinner, he and his wife stand behind the chairs of the highest excellence. Ten years ago Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell, & Co. established their advertising agency in New York city. Five years ago they ab orbed the business conducted by Mr. John Hooper, who was the first togo into this kind of enterprise. Now they have the satisfaction of controling, the most ex-en-ive and complete advertising connection which has ever been secured, and one which would be hardly possible in any other country but this. They have succeeded in working down a complex business into so thoroughly a systematic method that no change in the newspaper system of America can escape notice, while the widest information upon all topics interesting to advertisers is placed readily at the disposal of the public.
