LOCAL MATTERS.

For the Latest Telegraphic News look on the First Page.

There is a divergence here in the middle of Water street near Duke, the street having caved in. A pole now marks the spot.

C. B. Pidgeon has just completed the extension of his plant and has put in three large plate glass windows.

The fact that the street cars are so generally made up on Sunday is the strongest reason why their continuance on that day should exist—Halifax Chronicle.

Stewart's "Alpha" will have here Friday evening next, for Yarmouth, N. S. Freight will be received at the warehouse, West Point on and after tomorrow, Wednesday.

It is understood in shipping circles that Messrs. Smith, Brown & Winslow, N. S., are to have a ship built in this city for them at an early date. It is believed J. F. Traver will be the builder.

A new locomotive, the "Chimney", arrived yesterday by the New Brunswick road for the Chignecto Marine Railway Co. This locomotive is small in size, but its appearance was greatly admired by numerous visitors today.

Several window breakers were found outside of Messrs. Emerson & Fisher's store last evening by the police. They were taken to the central station.

Officer McLaughlin was not resigned from the force although that was his intention at first. He will remain on the force.

A Halifax man, 20 years old, with wife 20 years his senior, and a prominent member of the Salvation Army, took his departure for Kansas last Wednesday with a young woman known as Miss Brown. She is left in destitute circumstances.

When the train on the New Brunswick railway, due at Stephen at 2:40, yesterday afternoon was near Meadow station, three of the cars left the track—two second class cars and two freight cars. One of the latter was nearly demolished and the other two were overturned.

The passenger car left the track, but no one was hurt. The mail was sent in the engine in the care of the baggage master. The passenger car was not at Stephen, until 6:40. The road will be closed for the night train.

The Supreme Court of Nova Scotia has adjudged the wholesale case of the provincial license law ultra vires. This judgment was upon a case prepared and argued by the direction of the Dominion Parliament and therefore the local legislature cannot do otherwise.

Judge Townshend held a contrary opinion and held that the provincial decision had abolished the distinction between wholesale and retail licenses, and relegated the matter to the local legislature. He held the whole act void.

The Dominion Parliament and therefore the local legislature cannot do otherwise. Judge Townshend held a contrary opinion and held that the provincial decision had abolished the distinction between wholesale and retail licenses, and relegated the matter to the local legislature.

A MERRY HOUSE-WARMING.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickie Entertain Their Friends in the "Queen".

It was a jovial gathering that took place last evening at the "Queen"—this transforming the old Cleverton into the new Queen and the christening thereof. Miss host Dickie, and Mrs. Dickie, had spared no effort to make the evening an enjoyable and memorable one to their guests, and their efforts were successful beyond praise.

The evening was a happy one for everyone, and the hospitality shown by the hosts was highly appreciated by all.

SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Leaves.

Another Amateur Lacrosse Club has started in connection with the Echo A. Club, and the laurels of the Union, the St. J. A. C. and the Y. M. C. A. are to be shared.

The Echo club can put a strong team in the field, and hope to identify their name with the pennant, if somebody will only be good enough to offer one for competition.
