Yes, we sell a great deal of yarn. Possibly there's a reason for that in the fact of our prices being under market rates.

We notice that many people who buy their dry goods elsewhere come to us for "The Stocking-by-the-yard." We have come to be known as headquarters for the goods and rightly so.

THE BOARD OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES met last evening. The report of the superintendent, for October showed an enrolment of 6,619, and average daily attendance of 5,328. The percentage was 80.40. A CURIOSITY.—A gentleman in this city received a letter from Bridgeport, Conn., telling of a large schooner which will be launched there about the 24th. of this month. She is called the P. T. Barnum and the largest portion of her is owned by the great showman. It is his first investment in shipping property and the vessel is the first one ever built at Bridgeport. Crowds of people visit the shipyard to view the new craft and many are the enquiries that are made as to how she will be got afloat, a thing which seems impossible to some who have never before seen a vessel on the stocks.

SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

The Ring.

The Griffin-Hubbard contest comes off at the Ajax club next Tuesday night. Jimmy Lynch, the New York 122-pound pugilist wants to fight the winner.

The latest aspirant for a battle with Austin Gibbons, the winner of the recent Cushing-Gibbon fight is Jimmy McHale, the Philadelphia light-weight pugilist. McHale is well thought of in Philadelphia, and if necessary, can get $2000 backing for a match with Gibbons.

Johnnie Murphy was on the streets yesterday for the first time since his defeat by George Dixon. Johnnie shows no signs of his recent battle with the exception of his left ear, which is slightly swollen. He says he has retired from the ring, and in future will devote his attention to teaching the Harvard boys how to spar.

Athletic.

At a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. lacrosse club held last evening it was unanimously resolved to transform it into a general athletic club. Some fifteen or twenty of the boys were present, and they were all in favor of this movement. The chairman Mr. Geo. Jenkins, said that he had spoken with a number of the members who were absent from the meeting, and they had thought well of the scheme, believing that an association for the furthering of general athletics would be peferable to merely a lacrosse club. A committee composed of Messrs. C. J. Milligan, C. H. Barnes, C. Davis, Dickson and Powers was appointed to confer with the physical culture committee of the Y. M. C. A. and arrange matters with them.

* * *

The Y. M. C. A's passed a vote of thanks last evening to THE GAZETTE, for its efforts in the present movement to organize an athletic club.

The GAZETTE has endeavored during the past two years to help along every athletic association in the city. It has never been sparing in its notices of their meets, and has been willing on all occasions to do whatever lay in its power towards the advancement of amateur and legitimate sport. How successful these endeavors have been may be estimated from the worth which the boys attach to THE GAZETTE's sporting column.

OFFICIAL VISIT.—Last evening Grand Worthy Patriarch Thorne paid an official visit to Granite Rock division, S. of T., of the West end. During the evening addresses were made by the G. W. P., as well as Elijah Ross, H. P. Sandall, S. T. Mosher, J. B. M. Baxter, Jas. Carleton, J. V. Ellis, jr., and Grand Worthy Associate Thomas.

THE BEAVERS.—A special meeting of the Beaver Lacrosse club will be held at their rooms, Seely's field, on Friday evening next, at 8 o'clock. The procuring a club room and the propriety of operating the Victoria rink during the coming winter will be brought before the meeting for discussion. A full attendance of the members is therefore particularly requested.

A GOOD RESOLVE.—Prof. Hennderson, dermatoligist and barber, who has his place of business on Prince William street has posted up the following self explantory notice in his shop window. "I, W. R. Henderson, do hereby promise with the help of the Great Master and the people, to abstain from the use of all alcoholic drinks, the remainder of my life." Nov. 11, 1890.

McCANN'S LYCEUM THEATRE was filled last night by an appreciative audience who heartily enjoyed the performance. Morton and Coleman's clog dancing was wonderful, and they are without a doubt the best dancers ever seen in St. John. Mr. Kennedy's selection of Manager McCann's composition "Fred Young, the noble hero of St. John," was received with terrific applause. The rest of the show was good, the after piece extremely funny and there was nothing said or done to offend any one. The "Lyceum" is a good place to while away an evening and see a good performance. Hughes and Farron make their last appearance to night.

THE GROCERS.—The grocers union movement is following the early closing movement in the same line of business. The meeting of grocers called for last evening in Berryman's Hall to form a union was attended by only a very few groceryman, and nothing was done. Business zeal on the part of the grocers doing large businesses and the temptations to work late that are in the way of small dealers who live in the rear of their stores are said to be the principal causes of the failure to get the early closing movement into operation. The formation of a union which it is believed by some would eventually bring about a system of early closing among the grocers is a scheme in which the majority appear take very little interest. The clerks are more interested in movements of this kind than their employers.

The Fred Young Memorial.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE GAZETTE:—

Sir:—Feeling at all times as I do the greatest admiration for the man who sacrifices his life, to save his fellow, I should find it difficult to make any general suggestion regarding the proper methods either to reward or to perpetuate the memory of the heroic deed but in the present instance, the attempt of Fred Young to rescue his friend Mundee from drowning, I do not think a monument is the "thing." I do not wish in any way to depreciate the heroism of the youth who leaped into the waves but I am of the opinion as no doubt many of the subscribers to the fund are, that had it not been for the failure of assistance to Fred Young the mere leaping into the water, would have called forth little more than the kind expressions of his friends and the admiration of the public. Is not a monument erected to remind one of some historic event or person? It has been well said by one of earth's greatest men, "I would rather men ask why were monuments not erected to me—than why were they." If we were imbued more with this spirit we should not be so ready to show our appreciation of a brave deed by erecting a column.

Could not the $2,000 form the nucleus of some fund for some charitable institution, to be named after the heroic youth?

Do you not need a life saving station or better facilities for saving life?

What purposes will the proposed monument answer?

We do not need to be reminded of this particular deed of courage or act of bravery to awaken heroism in us.

It is an almost every day occurrence. Hardly a week passes but we hear of some brave heart that has dared to risk his life and limb in the discharge of duty. If we could speak with the departed spirit, I cannot but believe that he whom we mourn would request that our display of appreciation for his deed, take a more practical turn.

A monument! the brave do not crave such memorials. Yours respectfully.

CECIL A. MABERLEY.

State of Maine, Monday, Nov. 10, 1890.

THE YOUNG MEMORIAL.—It is eminently fitting the heroic deed of the young man, J. Fred Young, who sacrificed his life in an endeavor to save another, should be recognized and the memory of it perpetuated. The subscriptions to the memorial fund which have been so freely made, show how deeply the public heart has been touched. Contributions have come from every part of the Province, from rich and poor alike, and from old and young. It is noticeable that the names of many young people are in the lists of contributors. They feel a deep interest in the movement to honor the memory of the brave boy. And all the young must receive from his heroic action a stimulus to strong and unselfish living.—Religious Intelligencer.

A SUMMER RESIDENCE.—Mr. Richard J. Foxwell of this city has purchased a property at Red Head for a summer residence.

A Pleasant Parting.

The boarders (chair and permanent) of Miss Prince's boarding house, known to the boys as "Morality Hall," met in a merry mood last night to wish one of the most popular of their number, Mr. Fred W. Murray, good luck and God speed in his journey upon the troubled sea of matrimony. The chair was amply filled by the rotund 'Commodore.' After discussing the excellent fare provided by Prof. Washington, speech, congratulation and song followed each other in rapid order from the gentlemen present. The company was large and the speeches varied, but all did well, in fact too well to particularize. The efforts, however, of "Rory," "the fakir," "Mac," the "Red Indian," "Brownie," "the Major," "the genial senator" and our "American cousin" were particularly well received, also an original Irish melody by one of the "chair" boarders and the "Star" piano playing by the accompanist, an ex-boarder at the hall, helped to fill out a pleasant evening, which was closed by Auld Lang Syne and God save the Queen and three cheers for Mr. and the future Mrs. Murray.

This same merry company presented Mr. Murray with a handsome adjustable easy chair, as a mark of their esteem.

This evening the marriage of Mr. Murray to Miss E. Rannie daughter of Mr. Wm. Rannie, will be solemnized at St. Andrew's church.

Leaves for San Francisco.

As stated in the GAZETTE a few days ago Mr. Wm. Christie, the well known singer, is compelled to leave for San Francisco for his health. A short time ago Mr. Christie met with an accident which, although it seemed trifling at the time, has proved to be of a serious nature. His physician found that he would not be able to stand the severity of the coming winter in St. John, and so ordered him to a warmer climate. During the past few years this gentleman has been an indefatigable worker in the choir of St. Andrews church, and has given assistance at numerous musical entertainments gratis. His many friends therefore in that church, and some few others, will present him with a handsome purse before his departure, and will unite in the hope that he will return next spring permanently restored in health.

Among the Shipping.

Bark Saron, from Shediac Oct. 4, for Fleetwood, was towed into Mersey, Sunday. She has lost foremast, mainmast and headgear.

THE PALACE.—Another large audience attended at the Palace theatre last night when Miss De Valloy and Miss Rose King made their farewell appearance. They were heartily applauded and after receiving a triple encore Miss King made a brief speech, expressive of her gratitude for the reception given her and her regret at leaving St. John. The specialities of the other performers elicited deserved commendation. This evening Mr. U. Hughes and Miss Claire Farren will make their first appearance at the Palace in their new act entitled, "A modern school of acting."

GAME IN THE CITY.—On Sunday last, a deer was seen to wend his way down the east bank of the Nashwauk and taking the water set out to swim the St. John below this city. The crew of the tug Bismark noticed the strange object in the water, and led by James Rodgers at once got ready to capture him with poles and similiar contrivances. Despite their best efforts it got past the tug and swam valiantly for the shore. The boatmen shouted to some boys on the bank to receive it with clubs. As they gathered in a line the deer seeing that it was shut off, sprang at a bound over their heads and made for the woods back of the Ritchey property and has not been seen since.—Fredericton Gleaner.
