Deputy Minister Replies to Article Regarding Chinese Interpreter.

(Special to the Times.) Ottawa, May 1.-F. C. T. O'Hara deputy minister of trade and commerce gration, has given out an interview deprecating in the strongest manner some of the statements appearing in an article contributed to the May number of the Busy Man's Magazine, by R. B. Bennett, of Calgary.

The article in question is entitled emarkable Canadian Chinaman," and refers to Lee Mong Kow, Chinese intrepreter for the department of trade and commerce of Victoria. Much attention is given to the alleged part taken by Lee Mong Kow at an investi gation held last summer in Montreal by Mr. O'Hara, pursuant to which several alleged Chinese merchants were refused free admission into Canada. The article places Lee Mong Kow in most unfair and damaging position in the eyes of his countrymen in Canada, and charges in affect that he is practically acting as Chinese detective for

Mr. O'Hara says at the time there was no official Chinese intrepreter in Eastern Canada and when he decided upon investigating the steady influx at Halifax and Montreal of so-called Chiese merchants, bona-fide merchants under act being exempt from payment of tax, he instructed Lee Mong Kow who is senior intrepreter in the ser vice, to meet him in Montreal. LECTURE ON BOOKS.

Dr. Hands Gave Instructive Address Before Young People's Association.

The members of the Anglican Young People's Association spent a wery pleasant and instructive evening on Wednesday, when Dr. Hands, Victoria's public librarian, treated them to a lecture upon books. Noel Robinson presided over an attendance of members which, owing to various counter attractions, was not as large as the merits of the lecture deserved.

Dr. Hands, who introduced not a lit tle humor into his talk, after empha sizing the value of words and their proper use, dealt with books, both poetical and prose. Words, as words, ne pointed out, were of little value however beautiful, unless they clothed ideas.
