WOULD NAME PARIS STREETS AFTER GREAT LEADERS OF THE NATION

Such a Movement Now Arouses Interest—A Whole Series of Bills Which Signifies the Gratitude of a Nation Towards Her Soldiers—Pensions Proposed for All Who Have Served and Cash Bonuses as Well as Gifts—Fathers of Families to be Mustered Out First.

By Hampton Hunt.
(Special cable to the N. Y. Tribune and the St. John Standard.)
Paris, Nov. 19.—The proposition has been brought before the Paris municipal council to baptize certain streets and a city with the name Clemenceau, Poincaré and Joffre, and has been favorably referred to a committee for consideration.

The enthusiastic admirers of the Tiger on the council urge that the upper half of the Avenue des Champs Elysees from Pont Neuf to Arc de Triomphe shall be named Avenue Georges Clemenceau.

A whole series of bills has been introduced into the chamber and referred to a committee for consideration with the object of signifying the gratitude of France to her soldiers. One measure proposes every soldier, corporal, non-commissioned officer who has been constantly with the armies throughout the war shall be given a pension of two and a half dollars a week. Another proposal is that all soldiers and sailors from non-commissioned officers to privates shall be given a pension of one hundred dollars or three dollars for every month they have passed at the front, whichever of the two shall be the larger sum. The bill which proposes to permit every soldier on demobilization to retain his steel helmet as his own personal property as an heirloom for his family is already assured of passing by the personal promises of Clemenceau.

Another proposal is for the fathers of families to be given a special privilege of early demobilization. The oldest classes will, of course, be mustered out first, and it is proposed that fathers of families shall be handicapped at the rate of two classes for every child, which would mean that a man of thirty-eight with six children would be demobilized on the first day of disbandment of the army.

Notices have been given of a resolution calling upon the government to insert in the treaty of peace the clause stipulating for the restitution by Germany of the French flags captured during the war of 1870.

W. B. Naylor, who is now in St. John in the interests of the "Turn to the Right Company" which is to play here at the Imperial Theatre on December 4th and 5th, is very enthusiastic over this play.

"Turn to the Right" will have a rather unique experience when it is played again in Montreal at Christmas time, as it will be a return engagement. It was seen in Montreal in September and also in Toronto the same month, but will have a return engagement in both cities in the holiday season.

Miss Blossom Baird was playing in a company which W. B. Naylor was managing producing "The Alien" when the influenza epidemic ended all theatrical enterprises.

"Turn to the Right" opens in Bath, Maine, and will follow about the same route as that taken by "The Brat" with which Mr. Naylor was associated. Mr. Naylor leaves today for Fredericton returning on Monday. The Turn to the Right Company left New York today for the tour.

MOUNTED POLICE JOIN POSSE IN SEARCH OF MISSING OUTLAWS

General Alarm Has Been Sent Out and Many Citizens Well Armed Are Scouring the Sparingly Settled Country in Which the Murderers May be Hiding—Report That Another Man Has Been Shot.

Prince Albert, Sask., Nov. 22.—The Gervais bandits, Victor Carmel and Jean Baptiste St. Germain, who murdered James McKay, last Friday, shot and killed Charles Horsley, member of a posse, on Wednesday, and who are also regarded as having murdered James Suger, a farmer, who has been missing since last Friday, are now believed to be at large in the wooded country between Steep Creek and Prince Albert, bounded by the North and South Saskatchewan River.

In this great triangle of sparsely settled country there is ample opportunity to escape capture, provided the men are warmly clothed and can secure the food. The abundance of wild game in this area will largely solve the food problem, while it is claimed that these men usually want to be in warm clothing. It is believed that they escaped from the dugout on the banks of the Saskatchewan River in the confusion that ensued upon the shooting of Corporal Horsley on Wednesday.

A general alarm has been sent out and detachments of the police from many outside places have been called in. A detachment of six R. N. W. M. P. has been sent out to join in the man hunt. Many citizens armed with rifles have gone to the areas through which the men would have to pass and the police believe that the bandits cannot long remain at large.

A report reached the city from Moath Park, thirty-eight miles north of this city, that the body of a man had been found there. He had been shot through the leg. The police are investigating.

TRAIL RANGERS HOLD MEETING

First Session Held Last Evening—Over Sixty Boys Representing Churches Were Present.

The first meeting of the Grand Camp of Trail Rangers was held last night at the Y.M.C.A. building and over sixty boys were on hand, representing a number of city churches. On Monday night the older, or Tuxis, boys, met at the Y.M.C.A. and the meeting last night was for the younger boys who call themselves the Trail Rangers.

A. R. Crookshank, president of the local Advisory Committee, presided at the meeting held in the early evening. An illustrated talk on the Trail Rangers was given by A. M. Greer, boys' secretary. He showed views of the Rangers throughout Canada in training and also the activities carried on by the different groups and he made the presentation doubly interesting by vivid descriptions of the views. In closing he made an appeal for the boys to train themselves in the program of the Trail Rangers so that they might take a more active part in the work of Canada.

After the lecture the boys assembled in their various camps (rooms) for Bible study discussion. Later they adjourned to the gym. floor for the physical activities under the direction of Jack Maughan, the physical instructor.

MILITARY NOTES.

Captain Sibbey of the Dental Corps left for Ottawa last evening on military business.

The boys of the Ninth Siege Battery are the first in this military district to be demobilized, several being discharged yesterday from the service. In the future this unit will be discharged as quickly as those in charge can handle the men; or according to instructions which may be received.

It is reported that many of the subordinate officers connected with the headquarters staff will be released from the service in the near future, as orders to hold themselves in readiness for such action have been received from Ottawa.

Demobilization of Canadian troops in England is well under progress.
