MAY YET TALK.

Preaching Policeman May Have Aluminum Tongue.

HALF MEMBER REMOVED.

W. H. Crampton Had Operation Performed Successfully—Hoped That He Will Be Able to Talk After a Time, and He Will Be Saved from Speechless Existence.

New York, April 15.—William H. Crampton, the "preaching policeman," may still live to address his audiences directly by the help of an aluminum tongue...

Science has done its best for the man, who expected to lose his tongue by an operation, and physicians who cut out part of that member in the Seney Hospital, Brooklyn, held out hope that the patient will live to talk and to relinquish his claim to be known as "the silent lecturer."

Lecturers traced on the waxen rolls of the phonograph must for some months tell his story from the platform while he stands beside the machine unable to make other than artificial and husky sounds...

It is possible that Crampton will have an aluminum tongue. A well-known surgeon said last evening that a French renegade had perfected an artificial tongue of aluminum which was almost as useful as the original member.

The tongue had to be cut away in order to save the lecturer's life. A cancerous growth had developed near the top and had spread its tentacles along the top of the tongue. The surgeons who gathered around the patient in the hospital yesterday found that it was necessary to remove half the member.

As told yesterday, he talked all day into his phonograph, so that his voice might still serve him when his tongue was gone, and in the evening he went to the Seney Hospital to prepare for the operation which the surgeons had declared was necessary to remove half the member.

The patient underwent the operation very well and was in good condition. He seemed very glad when told that the operation was a success, and that he would in all likelihood recover the power of speech.

At present he cannot even taste, nor will he be able to taste anything until the tongue has healed. The operation, which ended at its tip, distribute themselves at the end of its stump.

AMHERST'S NEW CLUB.

Lawn Tennis Association Organized—Property Purchased for Oil Business.

Amherst, April 14.—At a meeting held in the old Y. M. C. A. hall, a club to be known as the Amherst Lawn Tennis Club was organized. Officers are as follows: Honorary president—Major Dickey. President—A. Montzambert. Vice-presidents—J. H. Morrison. Secretary—E. N. Rhodes. Executive committee—H. A. Purdy and Howard McGeehan.

It is expected to have a membership of about 35. Mr. W. W. Black, of the Herford Stock Farm, Amherst, shipped to parties in Bermuda, via Halifax, yesterday, his very handsome 11-month-old Hereford bull, Harry. This bull was bred by the F. W. Stone Company, of Guelph, Ont., and has some of the best blood in his veins.

At the county council's session this week one of the important acts was the vote to build a new jail at Amherst. A committee on plans and specifications was appointed to report at the January session.

The Imperial Oil Company have purchased from Rhodes, Curry & Co., the property situated at the western entrance to the town, and known as the "old brick kiln property," and have awarded a contract to Rhodes, Curry & Co., for the erection of one of a large oil tank, warehouses, stables and offices.

Rev. D. A. Steel, D. D., went to St. John Friday to supply the German Street Baptist church Sunday.

Supreme Court.

Fredericton, April 15.—In Jack vs. Bonnell, court considers. Argument in the case of Goldie & McCullough vs. Hewson occupied the greater part of the forenoon session. Attorney General Pugsley arguing the special case for plaintiff, and Mr. Powell, K. C., for defendant. The motion is as to whether an act which was passed in the session of 1900 with a special clause making its provisions retroactive applies to the case in consideration; court considers.

Receiver General of New Brunswick vs. Hayward is now being argued. It is a special case, involving the construction of a section of the succession duties act. Attorney General Pugsley for plaintiff; Mr. E. Chapman for defendant; court considers.

Harris, administrator, vs. Jameson—A. G. Blair, jr., moves to enter verdict for defendant or for non-suit or new trial; Hon. W. Pugsley same side; still under consideration.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Ottawa, April 12.—(Special)—During the discussion tonight in the House of Commons, Hon. Clarke Wallace said that he would give the record of the member for Belchase (Talbot). When the house was adjourning Mr. Talbot demanded Mr. Wallace to fight on the floor of the chamber. The members, however, got between the combatants, and the clash was in this way prevented.

Ottawa, Ont., April 12.—(Special)—The event of the session was a speech of Mr. McCreary, the member for Selkirk, this afternoon in the house of commons. He simply captured the house and when he sat down at 6 o'clock almost every ministerial member crowded round his desk to congratulate him. The prime minister was among the first to come. Mr. Fisher and others of the cabinet.

Mr. McCreary speaks too fast, consequently his speech will not be properly reported. But no report could do justice to its strength and effectiveness. He gave the house a better idea of immigrants, their needs and requirements in the west than any one has ever done before.

The opposition made a general attack on the immigration policy of the government. Mr. Wilson, of Lennox, led the attack, singling out the Doukhobors as an example of undesirable immigrants. He did not mention the Galicians at all. He read some statements attributing free love and disregard of the marriage tie to the Doukhobors. When asked for his authority he said he did not know it. He merely found it in a newspaper. Mr. Wilson did not discuss the desire of the Doukhobors to go on the land to till the soil and did not offer any evidence that they were not submitting to and abiding by the laws of this country.

Mr. Wilson also criticized the expenditure on agents and agencies. A striking fact is that shortly after Mr. Wilson sat down—indeed immediately afterwards—only 22 opposition members remained to listen to the discussion. It evinced a lack of interest in this important subject on the part of the opposition.

Mr. McCreary followed and his intimate acquaintance with the subject readily got him a good hearing. He dealt extensively with the character and habits of the Doukhobors and Galicians. He gave instances where the Doukhobors had, instead of lowering the labor market, actually increased wages on their first job. With respect to the marriage laws and the statements of an agitator named Bogansky, Mr. McCreary declared he could get a statement signed by every Canadian Doukhobor that they did not believe in polygamy and were perfectly satisfied with Canadian laws. They regarded marriage as a sacrament and took it literally, that marriages are made with a solemnity and a religious ceremony of registration of marriage, just as the Mennonites have. This man Bogansky tried to take our Doukhobors to California and being hindered in this, he tried to ruin himself and has betaken himself out of the country.

Mr. McCreary read letters from educational people to show the intelligence, willingness to learn and capacity of these people.

Prof. Fox, of the Baptist College, Brandon, wrote a letter quoting a young Doukhobor student at college who gave information from his people in the Doukhobor settlements that they were satisfied with the laws of this country and their socialistic ideas.

He told the house that 95 per cent of the people were friendly to the Doukhobor immigrants, but a few cranks objected. He contrasted present immigration successes with the policy of the former government which brought in Poles, assisting them, but a few cranks objected. "Out of Sorts."

How frequently at this season of the year you hear the expression "I'm feeling a little out of sorts." That's the Spring feeling. The long winter months, with close in-door confinement, have left you feeling tired and jaded. The appetite is poor; there is a feeling of "laziness" in the morning; perhaps occasional headaches, or may be twinges of rheumatism. The weather is changeable and you take cold easily. You are not sick, but you do feel dull, languid and run down. What you need to put you right—to brighten you up—is a tonic, and the world over there is no tonic that can equal

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

These pills have a larger sale than any other medicine in the world, simply because no other medicine has made so many tired and despondent people feel bright, active and strong. Neighbors tell each other of the benefits they have derived from this medicine—the greatest of all recommendations.

Mr. Robert Lee, New Westminster, B.C., writes:—"Before I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills my blood was in a very impure state, and as a result pimples, which were very itchy, broke out on my body. To make my condition even worse I was attacked with rheumatism in the knee joints, which at times gave me great pain. I tried several medicines but they did not help me, and then my wife insisted that I try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I am now very glad that I followed her advice, for after using a half dozen boxes I was fully cured, and not only had the rheumatism disappear, but also the pimples that had been such a source of annoyance. You may be sure I am grateful for what the pills have done for me, and always speak a good word for them when opportunity offers."

It's a waste of money to experiment with other so-called tonics—weak, catch-penny imitations of this sterling medicine. Get the genuine with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around the box. Sold by all dealers in medicine or sent post paid at 50c a box, or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
