The Daily Tribune.
ST. JOHN, N. B., APRIL 22, 1872.

A St. John Newspaper of 1812—Interesting Reminiscences.

A friend has handed us a copy of a St. John paper of 1812—viz., "The Royal Gazette and New Brunswick Advertiser" of March 23, printed and published for the late Jacob S. Mott, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, at the Sign of the Bible and Crown, Prince William Street, where Subscriptions, Advertisements, etc., will be thankfully received." Its Obituary column contains notices of the death, at Portland Place, aged 70 years, of "Hon. William Hasen, Esquire, one of the earliest Settlers in Nova Scotia, and a Member of His Majesty's Council from the first creation of this Province in the year 1784;" the death also of Mr. Charles Theall, at his house in King's County, aged 79 years; and of Mrs. Mary Watson, consort of Mr. Robt. Watson, in the Parish of St. Stephen's, in her 80th year. The only Marriage recorded in its columns was "At Gagetown, on the 27th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Clarke, Mr. Lewis Dingo, to Miss Amy Creighton, both of that place." The bride in this case is still living and in good health and the grand-mother of married persons in this City.

The second American war was raging at the time, and the "Royal Gazette" accordingly gives a considerable amount of space to "Rodgers' Cruise,"—Commodore Rodgers having just devoted 75 days to chasing and destroying British merchant vessels. There is also an announcement that British soldiers, "accompanied with nearly 3,000 Indians," had proceeded to dislodge the Americans from their positions on Detroit River; that "part of the troops from New Brunswick and Halifax" had arrived at Quebec; and that General Sir George Prevost and Vincent had arrived in Saint John from the Upper Provinces; and the following interesting advertisement copied from a hand bill found in the baggage of an American officer:

"ATTENTION!
Every Canadian Patriot, who has fled from under the yoke of Slavery, and tyranny of a King, and who wishes to contend for Religion, Equality, Independence and Liberty of his country, can, by coming to Plattsburg, enlist in a Canadian Rifle Company, for the term of five years or during the war.

He will receive
134 Dollars bounty,
100 acres of land,
Besides his clothing, one ration per day,
eight dollars a month,
HONOR FOR LIBERTY.

WILLIAM BEZEAU
2nd Lieut, 1st Regt U. S. Light Artillery,
Plattsburg, 15th February, 1814."

Bezeau appears to have been a Canadian. The "Gazette" says of him somewhat fully: "Those who know him, his honest and respectable relations, know, to their sorrow, that he is worthy of holding a commission in the American Army. We will, however, do him the justice in as regards the contents of this handbill, to say he has not surpassed in imposture the generality of those with whom he 'now acts.'"

A "He and Cry after Jerome," surnamed Bonaparte, taken from the German Papers, is republished, and, as an illustration of the Humor of the day:—

DUTCH PAPERS.
HEB AND CRY AFTER JEROME.
[From the German.]
"Whereas one Jerome (particularly described below) late merchant's clerk who resided several years at Cassel, as manager of the business of an elder brother, has been guilty of various crimes and misdemeanors, since he has not only been absent and absconding in all reasonable practices against the sacred person of our beloved Elector and other reigning Sovereigns, committed many robberies and murders, and squandered away his money, embezzled and squandered very large sums of money, and has, in addition, contracted numerous debts, and shamefully defrauded most of the inhabitants of this and other places, and has in other respects given great scandal by his debauched and vicious course of life, privately absconded from this city after the bankruptcy of his said elder brother at Leipzig, and before his person could be secured; and whereas it is of importance to the public welfare that this highly dangerous character, who is now probably roving about as a vagabond from place to place, should not remain at large, the magistrates of all the towns, and all good citizens in general, are hereby required to keep a vigilant look out for the same; and, in case of his discovery, to apprehend him wherever he may be found, and to send him hither under a sufficient guard. To those who shall discover, or be instrumental in the discovery of the said Jerome, so that he may be made an example of, and brought to condign punishment, is hereby promised a reward of 10,000 centimes by us.

"THE CITIZENS OF CASSEL.
Done at Cassel, Oct. 30, 1813.

DESCRIPTION OF THE CULPRIT.
"Jerome, aged 29 years, of low stature, an awkward figure, discolored and debilitated by excess, sallow complexion, thin and hollow-eyed, down-cast look, middle-sized nose and pointed prominent chin, particularly remarkable for the harshness of his voice and indistinctness of his speech. At the time of his absconding he wore a white coat, with blue collar and cuffs, and epaulettes of false gold, a short white waistcoat and buckskin breeches; a large old cocked hat, and newly galoshed boots with sherry-yellow tassels.

Among the advertisements of that day we find that of the sale of a valuable farm of 400 acres, 60 cleared, (25 of which is intervale) "the property of the late Widow Fowler, including that part in possession of Monmouth Fowler, lying on the Hammonds River, French Village, 20 miles from St. John and 4 miles from Hampton Church." William Pagan & Co., of St. John, advertise Jamaica Spirits, Sugar and Lard, lately just received from Jamaica; C. F. Peters,—"that commodious store lately occupied by Mr. Ezekiel Barlow, on the outer end of the Wharf"; Nehemiah Merritt,—British Merchandise, just in from Liverpool; Stephen Humbert,—Wine, Brandy, Rum, Sugar, White Cotton Balls, Strong Shoes, etc.; John Knutton,—goods just imported from Glasgow. William Black & Co. offered for sale, at public auction, etc.; Ezekiel Barlow, Conter Brandy, Muscovado Sugar, Salt, etc. Edmond and Bedell were then doing business; Susan, William and Marcus Peters, of Hampton, were administering on the Estate of one Thomas Peters, of the County of York, deceased; and "in consequence of the decease of the late Bradford Gilbert, Esq., the Co-partnership of Bradford Gilbert and Son and Bradford and Thomas Gilbert was that day (Feb. 7, 1814) dissolved."

Sir Thomas Sumner was Commander-in-Chief, and John Odell Provincial Secretary; and between them they proclaimed that a Public Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout the Province, "that so we may humble ourselves before Almighty God, and in the most devout and solemn manner offer up our Prayers and Supplications for the Pardon of our Sins, and for the averting of our heavy Judgments which our manifold provocations have most justly deserved, and fervently implore the Divine favor and protection in behalf of our Most Gracious Sovereign and His People, that ever calamity may be removed from His Majesty and from the Royal Family,—That the Arms of His Majesty are usually governed with success, and all things so ordered by a merciful Providence, that the Blessings of Peace may be restored, and the prosperity of His Majesty's subjects secured in every part of His Dominions." In these times the Mails for Halifax "closed every Tuesday at Sunset," and for Quebec and Fredericton every Wednesday at the same time." William Campbell was then Postmaster of St. John.

Altogether, the old paper is well worthy of careful perusal and preservation.

The Burthen of Government.
The Reform agitators and Journalists of Ontario have for years past given an excellent specimen of political glibness. They were clever, dashing, and sometimes successful in assault. They hovered on the banks of the Dominion Government, and frequently made the time pass by a little anonymous to the enemy. They were fearless riders. They carried but light weight, and were under no sense of responsibility for their actions. Their aim was to attack and injure, and this they steadily pursued. Recently they have found it necessary to change their tactics somewhat. Having obtained possession of the Government of Ontario, they have now a camp of their own on the bank of the Dominion Government. They are doing quite as much in the way of attacking the Grits as in defending John A.; and Grit Journalists are now obliged to devote about as much of their valuable time and space to a defence of the Blake Government as to assaults on Sir John. The possession of power has not been an unmitigated good to the old guerilla fighters. They long to assault; they desire most abominably this business of watching the Government's motions and resisting attacks from the other side. In Parliament, the Grit Leaders find their action somewhat hampered by their dual position. They will be more cautious in their assaults. We will have no more "Bellevue Charges." The Treasurer and Premier of Ontario are very different persons from the private members Blake and Mackenzie that we were used to. And Grits, necessarily, no longer will be John A.'s opportunity, both in Parliament and the coming Elections.

The City Accounts.
January, February, March and April have now passed away, and the Accounts of the Corporation, which closed on Dec. 31, have not yet been given to the citizens. The printing is not yet completed. The Aldermen and Councilors have, many of them, been re-elected; the Mayor's Election has been disposed of; and the account of these official Stewardship is still a sealed book to the tax-payers. The City's heavy liabilities will require to be dealt with almost immediately, and new Bonds sold to pay old ones maturing, and yet the accounts of last year so necessary to a clear understanding of "the situation," are not forthcoming. They certainly can not be much longer delayed, unless the Civic magistrates propose to withhold them entirely.

New Line of Steamers Demanded!
Halifax has evidently been improved under Confederation. The Halifax Press urges its capitalists to put on a line of steamers direct from Halifax to England. The Citizens remark:—"With our unequalled harbor open all the year round and with railway communication with the whole of the great west, the superiority of Halifax to every other port in British America as the entrepot of the Atlantic trade need only be mentioned to commend itself to public attention. It will become more than ever, when the Intercolonial is finished, the landing place for mails and passengers from Europe, for the whole American continent. Now is the chance for Halifax to take a start by which it will grow at a tenfold increased ratio to that which it has hitherto done."

Theatricals in Dorchester and Amherst.
It is the intention of the Dorchester Amateur Dramatic Club to comply with several requests from this place by giving an Entertainment here in the course of a few days, when they will present "Don Cesar de Bazan" and "The Limerick Boy." The performances of this club have been greatly praised. The personnel is composed of most respectable young men, of Dorchester.—[Amherst Gazette.

MATTERS IN GENERAL.
Ovation to Theodore Cuyler.
The Rev. Dr. Theodore L. Cuyler sailed for Europe in the Cunard steamer China on Wednesday last. The doctor goes as a delegate from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and the General Assemblies of the Old Kirk of Scotland, the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, and the United Presbyterian Church of Great Britain.

Some two hundred members—men, women, and children—of Dr. Cuyler's Church assembled at the Cunard docks to wish him a God speed. The promenade deck of the China was thronged by his constantly increasing multitude. Dr. Cuyler was dressed in a plain suit of mixed gray. He wore a small bunch of blue violets and geranium leaves on his lapel. His family stood by his side as he received the congratulations of his many friends. He was smiling except his little son, who wept bitterly. The tears stood in the Doctor's eyes as he bowed the little fellow to his bosom.

A basket of flowers was presented to Dr. Cuyler by the children of his Sabbath School. It was composed of white roses, bordered with red. Across the centre was the following inscription in red flowers: "Number 11, 25." The passage referred to reads:

"The Lord bless thee, and keep thee; The basket was sent to the saloon and placed on the table opposite Dr. Cuyler's seat, which is in the fore part of the ship. At length the bell warning all not passengers to leave the steamer sounded. A hearty shake of hands and a hurried farewell followed. The throng then flocked to the end of the pier, remaining there until the steamer had got into the stream. Handkerchiefs were waved to Dr. Cuyler as he stood on the deck. He responded by raising his hat. His friends remained until the ship was far distant that the post could not be distinguished from the other passengers surrounding him.

Dr. Cuyler expects to be in Edinburgh the last of May, and in Belfast the first of June.

Demonstration of the Trades' Unions in Toronto.
The Trades Union Demonstration took place on Monday. About one o'clock a procession of considerable length, headed by a man bearing the English Ensign, with the band of the 10th Royal, was formed, and at half-past one proceeded up King street west as far as Brock, into which it turned, thence along Queen street as far as George, down to King street east, and along King as far as Yonge street, and up the latter to the Queen's Park, where addresses were delivered. It was calculated that there were about four hundred in the procession, all the Unions being represented, the whole being escorted by five bands of music. The men marched four abreast, and some of them carried small Union Jacks, representing families and are remarkably well executed the one for Halifax representing a "girl of the period," in full dress (rather low at the neck), pinner, Grecian bend and all.

The Reformer's end of the Royal (late Stubbs) hotel, a stream of water comes running down continually, and annoyingly across the sidewalk, necessitating a hitching up of dresses, walking on toes, and other other modes of evading the mud and water, and is without doubt the cause of a great deal of profanity. Alderman Kerr and Councillor Cassidy will find it to their advantage to take soundings in that particular spot.

Woman's Influence—in the Lobby.
[From the Hartford Evening Post.]
Women as contractors or go-betweeners between Governments are always in employment as a result to the feminine quality of diverting judgment by acting on other qualities of the masculine mind. In all history women have been employed, sometimes successfully, in the conducting of diplomatic affairs that required more than argument, reason, logic, or demonstration. Before the arms sale investigation committee on Monday Mrs. Mason came as an active agent in the purchase of arms for the French Government. From her seat in the Washington, she was working through her influence. So it seems that her influence and business talents were wasted. It was not so fortunate a move for Mrs. Mason as for any other lady, who got a New York Tribune by the reporting of closed claims. Nobody seems to know who she is, whether she is connected with the navy as a sailor or marine; but only that she is a lady who exerted some influence, and for its certain reason refused a claim.

[From the Union Observer.]
It is a delicate question to allude to, but the Secretary himself saw fit to bring it forward. If we may credit the Washington reports, the Secor claimants secured the services of Mrs. Aulick to aid them in pressing the payment of their fraudulent claims. A handsome retainer in the shape of a Christmas present was given to this fascinating widow, and just one week later the $93,000 was turned over to Secor. Inasmuch as the then Mrs. Aulick is now Mrs. Robeson, it is to be presumed that her influence in the Navy Department last Christmas was worth all that it cost.

AN EXPENSIVE CANADIAN CHURCH OFFICE.
The total cost of the Metropolitan Church, McGill Square, in this city, including the ground, is $135,000. Of this sum $55,000 were subscribed and collected up to the time of the completion of the structure. During the last week the amount subscribed and otherwise collected has reached the magnificent sum of $30,000, including $1,300 raised at the bazaar—leaving a debt of only $50,000 on the entire structure and grounds. The enterprise and liberality of the promoters of the project have been the subject of general remark and commendation.—[Toronto Mail.

Oysters.
The celebrated Purrier Bede, Shediac, the largest and finest in the City at present, is being sold by Captain Peters, of Westport, Nova Scotia.

The Steam Plough.
That the use of the steam plough on the level lands of the West will ultimately be come almost as common as that of the reaping machine, few can doubt who have observed the progress of steam culture in Europe. In England there are establishments employing twelve hundred men in the manufacture of steam ploughs for export and home use; and it is said that as many as five hundred of the machines are held in that country for hire by companies and individuals. A tract of five hundred acres near London which would not bring a rent of three dollars an acre for ordinary culture, brought a clear profit of $18,000 on grain crops after being steam ploughed. In Germany and Scotland the steam plough has been successfully introduced. The Pasha of Egypt, too, has learned the value of steam in agricultural operations, and uses four hundred ploughs that are worked by that power. In due time they are certain to come into extensive use in the United States.—[Exchange.

Romantic if True.
A strange story is told of a Boston woman who sailed many years ago, being then a girl of eighteen, with her missionary husband, for India. "The vessel was wrecked on the Arabian coast, and all on board perished save her husband and herself. He was preserved only to fall a victim to Arab cruelty and she to Arab slavery. While over a foot of ice continued to melt, she and her husband were in the South Indian desert, but when that waned she fell from her 'lad emence' and was transferred to the harem of an inferior sheik. And so she lived, praying for death, but not daring to die, until her husband, who was banished to another she, a Boston lady, in whose veins flowed the purest Arabian blood, found herself the wife of an Arabian water-carrier. From his power an American traveller freed her and provided her with the means to reach home."

LOCALS.
Freight for Western Extension will be received, until further notice, at FAYVILLE, instead of Carleton, owing to the changes that are being made in the approaches to the Ferry Landings.

The Freshet in the River.
The water rose in the river last night about a foot. The ice continues to come down in large quantities.

Too much Mud.
From Chubb's Corner to the Market Square the mud is deep enough to hide from sight the street crossings which are supposed to cross the street between those two places. A small expenditure would render them useful to pedestrians.

The Latest Novelties in Figureheads are those that have just been turned out by Halifax carvers for new bark belonging to Halifax and Yarmouth. Both, says the Chronicle, represent females and are remarkably well executed the one for Halifax representing a "girl of the period," in full dress (rather low at the neck), pinner, Grecian bend and all.

The Reformer's End of the Royal (late Stubbs) hotel, a stream of water comes running down continually, and annoyingly across the sidewalk, necessitating a hitching up of dresses, walking on toes, and other other modes of evading the mud and water, and is without doubt the cause of a great deal of profanity. Mr. John S. Turner's New Residence.
on Princess street, between Wentworth and Pitt, a four story building, with well front, is about ready for occupation. The plan of the house gives ample room and every convenience. In the basement there are a spacious dining room; a good sized kitchen, with range and water closets; seven parlors; a winter cellar, furnace room, coal and water closets, etc.—the whole being well lighted. The suite of parlors and a library, with ample hall, take the whole of the second story, which is finished throughout in hard woods; the grain of the wood will be handsomely developed with oil and shellac. The appointments are all very complete. The third flat, also, has a large hall; and here are the principal bedrooms, the family suite being very commodious and otherwise well planned. On this story is the bathroom, supplied with every variety of bath and hot and cold water, besides the usual toilet conveniences and admirably arranged. The upper story is devoted to bed rooms exclusively, none of them small, and the view from them truly delightful. In fact, the latter respect the views obtainable to the south, east and north, are not surpassed by those enjoyed from any residence in the locality, nor is there much probability of their being intercepted by buildings to be hereafter erected. There is an ample supply of closets and pantries; and the number of rooms that can be used, if required, as sleeping apartments is not less than seven or eight. The ventilation is perfect, both by windows and well ventilators extending from the roof to the basement; and also the heating will be chiefly from the furnace, there are handsome register grates in all the principal rooms and bed rooms. The construction of the building has not been too rapidly hastened. Special attention has been given to the sewerage and drainage, and to the seasoning of the lumber, and to the fitting and joining throughout; and while there has been nothing wasted, nothing has been left undone to secure a building at once thoroughly constructed, convenient and ornamental. The out houses will be erected during the summer, and after they are up there will still remain considerable portions of the lot to be devoted to a flower garden or other ornamental purpose.

Mr. J. T. O. McKean was the Architect of the building; the Mason work was executed by Messrs. D. & E. Sullivan; the Plumbing by Mr. John Drury; the Painting by Mr. Barbour. The Register Grates were in part imported from Montreal, and in part purchased from Mr. Harris. For Price Lists and further information apply at the Office, 88 CALVERT STREET, EAST, MONTREAL.
