

things of every nature and kind within the scope of this act which to them may seem good, fit and useful for the well ordering and advancement of the said university, academy and seminary, and any other preparatory or academical or other department, provided the same be not repugnant to the provisions of this act or any law in force in this province, and they may from time to time alter, vary or rescind the same.

9. It shall be the duty of the Board of Governors to keep proper records and minutes of all their proceedings and to keep proper books of account of the financial affairs of the said university, academy and seminary, and any other preparatory or academical or other department, and to present a report of the work of the university, academy and seminary, and any other preparatory or academical or other department accompanied by a duly audited financial statement to each annual meeting of the Baptist Convention of the Maritime Provinces.

10. The persons now holding the offices of president and governors, respectively, of Acadia College, and their successors shall exercise the powers and carry into effect the provisions of this act until the appointment by the said convention of the six additional governors of the said university herein provided for, after which the management and administration of said university shall devolve upon the president thereof for the time being, who shall be ex officio a governor thereof, the eighteen persons now holding the office of governors of Acadia College and six additional governors. Those now holding the office of governors of Acadia College shall be entitled to continue governors of Acadia University for the respective periods of their appointment, subject to the rules and regulations of said convention, and their successors in office and the said six additional governors and their successors shall be appointed by said convention at such time and for such periods, and subject to such rules and regulations touching their appointment and removal as shall from time to time be adopted by said convention.

11. Seven governors or such larger number as the board may fix shall constitute a quorum of the board, and all questions shall be decided by a majority of the members present at the meeting of the board.

12. The Board of Governors shall appoint a body to be known as the Senate, to consist of the president of the university and of such other persons not being governors as the said board shall appoint, whose duty it shall be to advise the board from time to time upon all matters concerning the system and course of education pursued in said university, academy and seminary, and the examination
