

out hope in the world—as the dupes of error—as the infatuated slaves of superstition—as the victims of inhumanity—They commiserate their case—they ask your sympathies and your prayers.

It is not an untried warfare that our Society has commenced with the powers of darkness. The early heralds of Salvation triumphed over every difficulty. Europe was pagan—Our progenitors rendered worship to the God that made not the heavens and the earth—they sacrificed their fellow creatures to propitiate the supposed favour of a pretended deity; but they received the Gospel—they were made free—they were saved from lying vanities and now their progeny lead the way in a glorious warfare against the powers by which once they were enslaved. The Gospel is the power of God unto salvation, and shall be. Bel boweth down—Nebo stoopeth—the battle is turned to the gate—the armies of hell shall be put to flight and utter discomfiture, and Christ shall be all in all—Even so—AMEN.
