APPLE SHIPMENTS TO BRITAIN.

Mr. P. B. Ball, Canadian trade agent at Birmingham, says he has watched with much interest the various shipments of apples from Canada into that market, and thinks the proportion used by Birmingham this year is considerably greater than last. The great trouble is that the shortage in crop has prevented people buying to the extent they otherwise would. Apples, however, have reached very much higher prices this year than last, and are likely to still increase. Several of the largest buyers in Birmingham made their arrangements early in the season, and bought direct from Canada, and these shipments have come out much more even than goods bought at auction in Liverpool and Bristol.

A good many complaints have come to hand of careless marking. No one would ever think that people would be so misguided as to ship an apple under another name, because the one marked brought a much higher price than the other. Mr. Ball gives two instances which will be sufficient. One firm states that it had bought a parcel of Russets XXX, and paid a large price, Russets always commanding a higher price in Birmingham than any place in the kingdom, and in the ten barrels purchased four were Greenings, and were not
