

Chest
CAN
S
Phone 11

VOL. 5.

May

Christmas Trees Entertainment

A Christmas entertainment was given in the Baptist church last night. Violin and vocal solos, choruses and recitations by day school scholars made the programme, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. No charge for admission but a good time was taken up.

A successful Christmas entertainment was given in the Century Methodist Church last night. The church was thronged with the evening and the well conceived programme put out by the Sunday school was appreciated.

One of the best features was "Grandma's Family," a play by the members of the class, and the young ladies also very highly appreciated Santa Claus, distributed from the Christmas tree and the building each child a bag of candy.

The sum of $44 was received and considered highly satisfactory.

The following was the programme for the evening:
Chorus, the school; recitation, class; Hoopoe, Gordon and Kennedy's class; Leslie, Reid; class; Cooper's class; drill; class; baseball comedy; class; drill; nine girls; Family, Mr. Bristol's class.

On New Year's Day a service will be held in the Baptist church. At the service gifts will be received from children of each ward for the use of the hospital.

On Friday evening last a new entertainment was given in the basement of St. John's church. The Hon. W. T. In the chair. In an address Mr. Finlay spoke of the past when he had been an active part in just as was required in the organization of these gatherings. He knew and worry entailed, but which came to those who their time and energy.

The principal features of the entertainment were the choruses, infant classes, two senior by six little girls in the class, and a couple of Mrs. Ewart, who organized for choruses and Miss W. was responsible for the senior choruses, are of special praise for their connection. An item with the admiration of the audience was the song by Beth Allen, six years of age.

The presents hung on the Christmas tree were distributed by Claus, assisted by Mrs. Bell and Gordon DesBrisson and songs were other the programme.

The concert room was the doors, and the entertainment in every way a success. $35 was raised.

On the afternoon of Day the men of St. Bart's held an Old Country whist a very pleasant evening. The prize winners were W. and W. E. Evans.

In the evening the annual dinner of the club to thirty sitting down at

Eaton's

Has just the right but not too rapid best advantage on

Pingle's