

CANADIAN PACIFIC

Through the Rockies to Japan and China

☐ The most enjoyable, instructive and inspiring journey a Canadian can make—through the limitless prairies and magnificent mountain scenery of his own country—crossing the ocean on the Empress steamships of the C. P. R., peerless on the Pacific—never out of touch of the world's greatest transportation company, itself a Canadian product.

☐ Regular sailings are made from Vancouver, most direct route is taken; service and cuisine strictly first-class. If you are interested in the Orient write for cabin rates and booklets:—"Westward to the Far East," "New Highway to the Orient," sent free upon request, with any information, by

THE SHOWS, AND AFTERWARDS

Along Canadian Northern Railways

☐ There will be a Canadian Northern exhibit from six provinces, at the Sportsmen's Shows, at Toronto (March 21-28) and at Montreal (April 4-11.)

☐ The Canadian Northern sporting territories extend over four hundred miles in Nova Scotia; six hundred in Quebec; two hundred in Eastern Ontario; three hundred between Lake Superior and Lake of the Woods; and across the Prairie Provinces.

☐ For Hunters and Fishermen who cannot attend the Shows, there is plenty of information for the asking. For those who do not fish or shoot, but who love outdoor life away from cities, a rare choice of playgrounds is newly accessible by Canadian Northern lines:—Muskoka; the Maganetawan; the Superior Divide; the Real North-West; Lake St. John; the Saguenay; Upper St. Maurice; the Laurentians, from Montreal; South Shore of Nova Scotia; West Coast of Cape Breton.

☐ Prospective travellers' enquires answered by any of the following:—WINNEPEG, G. H. Shaw, Scott Building, Main Street; TORONTO, Wm. Phillips, Canadian Northern Building; MONTREAL, Guy Tombs, Canadian Northern Quebec Offices, St. James Street; QUEBEC, Alex. Hardy, Quebec and Lake St. John Offices, HALLIFAX, P. Mooney, 124 Hollis Street.
