

HOLBROOK'S

FIRST LIMERICK

PRIZE WINNERS

The decision of the Prize Committee for Holbrook's Limerick Contests, composed of the Editor Canadian Courier, Editor Mail and Empire, and Manager Woods-Norris, Limited, Advertising Agency, is announced below.

Prizes have been mailed to each winner.

Many replies arrived too late; many others showed no care in metre or rhyme—many a clever idea failed for a prize because of some little oversight.

Try again. Note the rules and dates carefully. The prizes are well worth winning. See next Saturday's paper for the beginning of the third Limerick. Replies to the second Limerick Contest, now running, must be received by November 14th.

HOLBROOK'S

SAUCE

The secret of beautiful, lustrous hair is a clean, healthy scalp.

PACKER'S TAR SOAP

not only cleanses the scalp, but, through the tonic and antiseptic action of its pure pine-tar, glycerine and sweet vegetable oils, it imparts a healthful tone to the underlying glands. Its routine use, therefore, keeps the scalp clean and healthy, thus preserving the gloss and beauty of the hair while promoting its growth.

Healthful booklet on "Shampooing" mailed free.
