

the

Gazette

DALHOUSIE'S STUDENT VOICE

Vol. 123 No. 14

January 17 1991

“WAR IS A POOR CHISEL TO CARVE OUT TOMORROWS.”

January 15 was not only the U.S. deadline for war or peace but also Martin Luther King's birthday. It is important to remember the man, what he stood for, and what he died for.

—MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.
DECEMBER, 1965