Newlyweds Spend Honeymoon On Sunshine Tour Of South

PORT CREDIT — First United Church, Port Credit, was the scene of the Christmas wedding of Sharon Ruby Diane Blackburn and Donald William Richards.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Blackburn of Cooksville and the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Richards, also of Cooksville, were united in a double-ring ceremony by Rev. Fred Joblin. Alan Crabtree presided at the organ.

Prior to the processional and during the signing of the register, the soloist, Mrs. June Ray, sang The Lord Is My Shepherd and O Perfect Love.

In the absence of her father, due to illness, the bride was given in marriage by her brother, George Blackburn, of Toronto.

She wore a floor-length gown of white silk velvet, having an A-line skirt applied with Chantilly lace, empire waist, jewel neckline and long narrow pointed sleeves fastened with eight tiny velvet buttons.

Her matching train, also appliqued with lace, fell from her shoulders while her full-length veil was caught with a cluster of white roses.

She carried a shower bouquet of red roses and carnations.

Miss Virginia Blackburn was her sister's maid of honor, while four cousins, Miss Ruth Blackburn, Miss Cherith Jamieson, both of Weston, Miss Anne Stewart of Port Credit and Miss Nancy Gray of Etobicoke were bridesmaids.

The attendants were gowned alike in floor-length dresses of red velvet, similar to the bride's but with elbow-length sleeves.

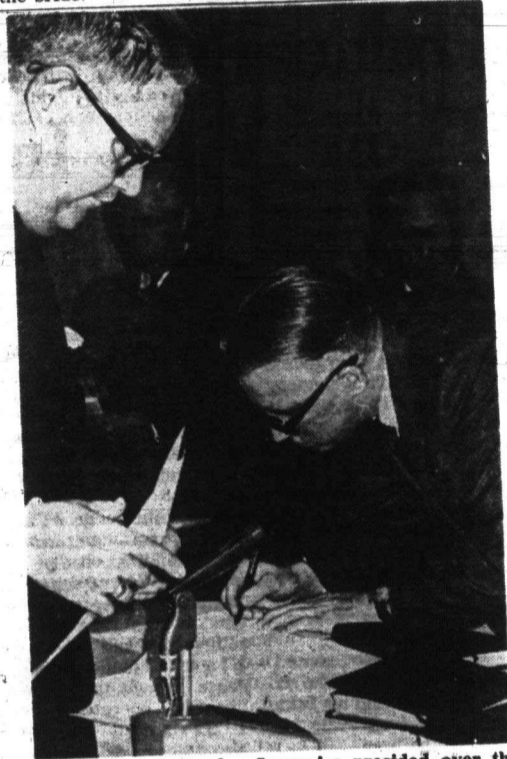

Their headresses were wreaths of holly and red velvet bows. They carried cascade bouquet of white mums, holly and red velvet ribbons.

The best man was Robert White of Destruction Bay, The Yukon, formerly of Cooksville.

The ushers were Wayne Johnson, Raymond Barrett, both of Cooksville, Ronald Schnurr of Guelph, friends of the groom and Bradley Clark of Etobicoke, cousin of the bride.

For travelling to Florida, the bride donned a white viyella flannel tailored dress, white lamb's wool hat, red wool coat with black lizard shoes and bag and a corsage of white roses.

The couple are residing in Brampton, where the bride is a teacher at Beauty-Fleming School.
