An Evening Out with Roger Doris

The year 1974 was a good one for those that enjoy dining out or for those that appreciate the talent of fine entertainers.

Numerous new places were opened throughout the year and many existing places received their licenses from the LLBO.

Some great entertainers appeared in the clubs in this area, as did many fine musicians.

The coming year should add even more fine spots to the area, which will compliment Etobicoke and Mississauga's position as the finest dining and entertainment area in all of Ontario.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all the many advertisers and readers, who have associated themselves with these pages, a very HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

Commencing January 5th, for 13 consecutive Sundays, a series of Hollywood classic movies will be presented at The Bristol Place Hotel.

Presented in conjunction with the Ontario Film Theatre, under the direction of Gerald Pratley, this film series is designed to offer to the residents of the west end of the city the same opportunity to view classic movies as is available at the Ontario Science Centre for east end residents.

Curtain time is 7:30 p.m. and tickets will be sold at the door on a first-come, first-
