Texaco Bantams sparked by Risnyj

Dixie Construction had as much trouble stopping Pete Risnyj as they did spelling his name.

Risnyj scored four goals and assisted on another as Huron Texaco whipped Dixie 7-2 in Mississauga Hockey League Bantam Blue-2 play last week.

Mike Bertrand added two goals and two assists while Chris Wood scored one goal and set up four others.

Steve Tomoney and Butch Lynns replied for Dixie with Gord Thompson assisting on both goals.

Dave Srebrotjak couldn't be beaten as Cawthra blanked Clarkson 2-0. Mike Brewer and Perry Kuypers scored the goals.

Kuypers scored three goals in Cawthra's next game to lead them to a 6-1 victory over Erindale. Mark Newell added a pair of goals and Bob Stechly one.

Capri North Stars champs in Erie

Erie, Pa., may not be the garden spot of the United States, but it will hold fond memories for the Mississauga Capri Forming North Stars.

The MTHL Atom A Stars won the Squirt championship of the Erie International Youth Hockey Tournament last week by defeating the host club 4-1. That victory avenged an early 2-0 loss to Erie in the opening round of the tournament.

The Stars also recorded a 6-1 victory over North Hills of Pittsburgh and a 2-1 victory over Meadowland.

MINOR ATOM A
The Bala Bay Inn Stars competed in the Brantford tournament, recording one victory in three games. The Stars blanked Windsor 4-0 before losing 5-4 to Waterloo and 3-2 to Bowmanville.

In an MTHL game last week the Stars were beaten 3-1 by Royal York. James Neate scored the lone Mississauga goal.

MINOR PEEWEE A
The Pop Shoppe Stars had little luck in the Brantford tournament as they lost two of three games. They beat Detroit 3-2 but lost 1-0 to Ancaster and 2-1 to Kitchener.

PEEWEE A
The Cooksville Sunoco North Stars had a successful week, winning their MTHL game and advancing as far as the finals of the Erie tournament.

Brian McKinnon's two goals led the Stars to a 3-1 victory over the Etobicoke Canadiens in a league game. Trevor Jackson scored the other goal.

Gatt supplies offence in MHL Novice win

Malton C & C Pro Sports Novices can thank Randy Gatt for the two points they picked up last week.

Gatt scored three goals to lead Malton to a 5-2 victory over Clarkson-1 in Mississauga Hockey League Novice Major play. Dave D'Amico scored the other Malton goal while Alex Simpson and Matthew Smythe scored for Clarkson.

In Novice B play, Lorne Park Magneto Electric got two goals from Billy Brown and a shutout from Robbie Sinclair in blanking Cawthra Star Silk Screening 2-0.

Billy Norris's shutout helped Huron Covers to a 2-0 victory over Erindale D. A. Sinclair in Novice White play. Timmy Stoll and Sean Rushton handled the scoring.

Millionaire night Friday

Cooksville Hockey Association will hold a Millionaire's Night Friday to raise funds for its upcoming series with the Philadelphia Firebirds.

Five teams from Philadelphia will travel to Mississauga Jan. 22 for a two-day series with Cooksville teams.

The fund-raising night will be held at the Cooksville Legion from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m. Admission charge is $3. A buffet and door prizes are included.

Those wishing to purchase tickets can call Mike Lee at 274-6264 or Leo Boehom at 279-7184.

Triple threat attack helps Young girls

Young Trenching had too many weapons to handle in the Mississauga Girls' Hockey League Juvenile division last week.

There was the scoring of Colleen Murdy and Joanne Benwell, who scored two goals apiece, the passing of Donna Schmalz, who set up two goals, and the goaltending of Chris Woolley, who proved unbeatable, as Young dumped M.H.B.H. 5-0. Diane Fletcher scored the other Young goal.

In the other Juvenile game, goals by Debbie Puljar and Wendy Croft resulted in a 1-1 tie between the Royal Canadian Legion and Blenkar.

In Atom play, a goal by Sonja Hickman was all Ideal Personnel needed in its 1-0 vic-

Frazer, Giardine can't be beaten

It took three periods of hockey to prove that Kevin Frazer and Mike Giardine are both tough goaltenders to beat.

Neither could be beaten as Huron Dufferin and Erindale International battled to a scoreless tie in Mississauga Hockey League Peeewe Blue-1 play last week.

John Dumigan also couldn't be beaten as he led Clarkson-21 to a 6-0 victory over Cooksville Western in another Peeewe Blue-1 game.

Doug Gerow led Clarkson with two goals while Lail Dabgotra, Mark Eghal, Joe Birt and Brian Lutz added singles. Dabgotra and Danny Earle had two assists each.

Goals by Darren Weicks and Hatem McDadi led Lorne

Park Rapier to a 2-1 victory over Erindale Intersea. Alex Bourcroft scored for the losers.

David Swan, Richard Pinos and Scott Lunshur scored two goals each as Clarkson-23 bombed Huron Dufferin 10-1. James Goodchild, Joe Parro, John Deveaux and David Thurston scored the other Clarkson goals. Colin McDonald replied for Huron.

Bruce Borden scored the only goal of the game as Cawthra Lakeview edged Erindale Krispak 1-0.

Wayne Breen recorded the shutout.

Clarkson Steeles win from Huron Atoms

It wouldn't be correct to say that Clarkson-10 stole a victory from Huron D'Orazio in Mississauga Hockey League Atom Red play last week, but the victory was a Steele.

Scott Steele scored three goals to lead Clarkson to a 4-0 victory. Kirk Doughwright scored the other Clarkson goal while Kevin Bennett had two assists.

Scott Garrie and Donald Lawrence combined for the shutout.
