

34758

The Roxborough,
Ottawa, May 20, 1918.

Mr. Charles O. Heydt,
26 Broadway,
New York.

Dear Mr. Heydt:

I received this morning your letter of the 17th instant, enclosing tickets from Chicago to Trinidad.

My present intention is as you have assumed, namely, to arrive in Chicago on Saturday morning the 25th. I shall go, on arrival, to the Blackstone Hotel. It was my original intention to arrive in Chicago Friday morning; but I have learned through correspondence that the person I was most desirous of seeing while there will be absent in the East at the time of our passing through.

I shall count on meeting you in the lobby at the Blackstone Hotel some time after the arrival of the Lake Shore Limited (which leaves New York Friday at 5.30 p.m.) and before dinner in the evening.

Thanking you for the trouble you have taken in this connection, and looking forward to seeing you on the 25th, I am,

Yours sincerely,

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume 39